Our globe-spanning local access takes you places no one else can, with an authenticity and support network no one can match.

The Most Extensive Network of Travel Experts in the World

Underlying each inspiring A&K journey is the most robust tour-operator-support network in the travel industry — over 55 offices in more than 30 countries around the world, all working 24/7 to uphold the same impeccable standards. In today’s travel environment, there is no substitute for a company that trains and manages its own full-time staff, personally orchestrating every aspect of your journey with precision and flexibility down to the last detail.

The Difference Local Access Makes

For A&K, having our own local staff is only the beginning. We forge lasting, one-on-one relationships with the people who know your destination best, from craftspeople and chefs to experts in local art and history. Our itineraries don’t come out of guidebooks — they’re the result of the authentic connections established between our experts and the friendly, hospitable local people who lend your journey a unique and personal touch.

What does this mean for you as an A&K guest? It means you experience each location on your journey from a truly local perspective, all while enjoying a smooth travel experience in which every detail has been anticipated by a dedicated on-site staff.

A Reassuring Local Presence From the Moment You Arrive

The A&K difference becomes clear as soon as you arrive and meet your representative, who assists with your luggage and escorts you privately to your hotel — on an A&K journey, you don’t share a vehicle on arrival or departure transfers, even with other A&K guests.

If there’s one thing A&K guests consistently value most about their journeys, it is their Resident Tour Director — over 95% of our guests rate their Resident Tour Directors as “Excellent.”

Resident Tour Directors With Deep Local Ties

Our Resident Tour Directors have lived for decades, sometimes even their entire lives, in the places you visit. Overseeing your entire journey, they accompany you every day, sharing their unique understanding of daily life as well as your destination’s culture, history and wildlife. The result is a journey that reveals the real spirit of a place, connecting you to the people, places and wildlife you encounter in a way you’ll never forget.

When it comes to inspiring travel,
a small group makes a big difference.

A World of Small-Group Journeys for Every Kind of Traveller

Our journeys offer inspiring adventure for every type of traveller. Luxury Small Group Journeys represent the finest small-group travel experience, while Wings Over the World journeys feature adventure-packed itineraries made possible through private air. Luxury Family Journeys offer inspiring adventures for all ages, and for the intrepid traveller, Marco Polo Journeys are limited-edition itineraries incorporating active adventure, exotic destinations or exclusive festivals.

Group Sizes That Average Only 14 Guests

Most Small Group Journeys feature a maximum group size of 18 guests with an average of only 14, and most Wings Over the World journeys have a maximum group size between 11 and 13 guests. The benefits are many, starting with the opportunity to enjoy deeper interactions with your Resident Tour Director and expert local guides, getting to know them for the insightful, dedicated travelling companions they are.

Itineraries Only Possible With a Small Group

A small group size lets us craft journeys that are seamlessly orchestrated and packed with the insider-access opportunities that are A&K's hallmark. Many of your journey's most memorable activities — whether a celebration at a local monastery or a guided tour of a private art gallery — are only possible with a smaller group. Small groups also enable A&K to reserve one-of-a-kind accommodations that can't house the typically larger groups that travel with other companies.

“I had the experience of my life in Africa. I cannot thank you enough for helping me make my dream a reality. I had the most wonderful birthday in Nairobi.

I couldn't be happier!”

Added to the beginning or end of your itinerary, small-group extensions (which may include other guests from your small-group journey) focus on a city or region not included on the main journey and offer the same luxury accommodations and amenities. We can even create a custom extension exclusively for you and your travelling companions, designed around your specific interests — contact A&K or your travel advisor to learn how a custom extension can enhance your journey.

Turn a Small Group Journey Into a Private Adventure

Many of today's travellers prefer the comfort of travelling exclusively with their own family and loved ones. If you prefer to travel this way (or our departure dates don't align with your schedule), look for the Travel Privately with A&K box on select itineraries to book that small-group journey as a private journey — the same itinerary, hotels and sightseeing for just you and your private party, led by your own local guides.

Travel in your own private party on a journey designed for you.

Creating a Journey Just for You

On a Luxury Tailor Made Journey, you travel with just family and friends, sharing every extraordinary hour with the people who matter most to you and returning home with shared memories you'll treasure. We plan departure and arrival dates — as well as the perfect balance of scheduled activity and free time — to match everyone's schedule and preferences.

Working with you or your travel professional, we learn everything there is to know about how you love to travel and what you're looking for in your journey. From there, every amazing destination, authentic local encounter and luxury accommodation is chosen with your interests in mind, making each day an adventure you won't want to end.

Travel With Peace of Mind and in Expert Company

We oversee your journey from the moment your A&K representative welcomes you at the airport. From there, an experienced team ensures that every hour of your itinerary unfolds according to plan, freeing you to simply enjoy yourself. Joining you in every destination is a local guide with their own unique firsthand perspective. Both an expert planner and an adept improviser, your local guide also brings a sincere love for the places they call home — something you'll soon come to share.

Elevate Your Journey with Exclusive Accommodations or Private Air

We can reserve a private European villa, luxury yacht or cozy barge for your exclusive use, or make getting there as inspiring as being there with chartered helicopters and planes, the perfect complement to the journey of your dreams.

When it comes to flying, let an A&K Air Concierge handle the details.

Count on Our Air Experts to Always Go the Extra Mile

A&K Philanthropy partners with local communities to empower lasting change.

Building on a Legacy of Partnership

Established in 1982, Abercrombie & Kent Philanthropy (AKP) is dedicated to giving back to the vibrant environments and communities we are so privileged to explore. As part of our ongoing mission, AKP partners with local communities to improve education, conservation, health care and enterprise with nearly 55 projects spanning seven continents — a philanthropic commitment unequalled in the travel industry.

Experience an AKP Project Firsthand

A number of our small-group journeys offer opportunities to visit an AKP partner community, affording a wealth of moving experiences you won't find anywhere else. Whether it's celebrating a newly opened maternity ward or serving lunch to local schoolchildren, many of our guests experience their journeys' most impactful moments during these visits.

Sharing Genuine Perspectives

AKP employs a team of dedicated Philanthropy Coordinators stationed throughout the world, allowing for deeper, more meaningful cultural exchanges. AKP Coordinators facilitate the face-to-face interactions that reveal the true fabric of these communities, from speaking with a local teacher in a Kenyan village to witnessing the impact of clean water wells in rural Cambodia.

“In just the past few years, travellers introduced to our AKP-supported projects during their journeys helped improve the lives of more than 125,000 men, women and children worldwide through donations to nearly 55 programs in 24 countries. That's the impact that travel can make.”

— Geoffrey Kent, Founder, Abercrombie & Kent

With nearly 55 projects worldwide, these are just a few of the AKP visits you can experience firsthand.

When choosing a luxury safari, go with the company that has set the benchmark since 1962.

Six Decades of Unmatched, On-the-Ground Experience

From our start in Kenya in 1962, Abercrombie & Kent pioneered the modern luxury African safari. Over 60 years later, A&K is still setting the standard for an African journey like no other, delivering authentic, inspiring experiences beyond the usual tourist destinations.

A Peerless Local Presence

Where other safari companies subcontract their services from a continent away, we live and work every day in the very same areas you visit. These long-standing connections — and 13 permanent, full-time offices in Africa — allow us to offer the best-located lodges and camps for game viewing, as well as unmatched service at every stage of your journey.

Simply the Best Safari Guides

A&K's safari guides are handpicked for their expertise in the culture, flora and wildlife of Africa. In Kenya, every A&K guide has attained a minimum of a bronze-level certification by the Kenya Professional Safari Guides Association; in fact, we have the most of any tour operator.

Custom Safari Vehicles We Design, Build and Own

While other safari providers rent or lease their vehicles, A&K owns and maintains its own custom fleet — the finest in East Africa. Our fleet is built to our specifications, with high front and side windows providing great views; air conditioning in most vehicles (a blessing on hot afternoons in the bush); a refrigerator filled with chilled water; and even Wi-Fi access.

Only the Finest Safari Camps and Lodges

Retreat daily to your own authentic, veranda-fronted tent or amenity-laden lodge to enjoy an unexpected haven of five-star comfort in the heart of Africa. From Sanctuary Olonana in Kenya and Sanctuary Chief's Camp in Botswana to Four Seasons Safari Lodge Serengeti and renowned Gibb's Farm, both in Tanzania, our safaris feature luxurious accommodations expertly positioned away from the crowds and near an abundance of wildlife and scenic views.

Impeccable Cuisine in the Bush

After working up a hearty appetite viewing wildlife on a rousing game drive, return to your camp or lodge and savor fine cuisine prepared by your on-site chef. A&K makes luxury dining a memorable culinary experience, even in the remote wilds of Africa.

Pack a Safari Bag Designed by the Pros

Guests on our African safaris receive a complimentary A&K Duffel, designed to the same exacting standards as the journey itself. Our bag is perfectly sized to hold your safari essentials while meeting all baggage size restrictions for your Africa flights.

A Long-Standing Commitment to Local Communities

Conservation and philanthropy were integral parts of A&K long before they were fashionable. Working hand-in-hand with local tribes and villages, we fund schools and clinics, and generate opportunities for employment that benefit their communities. Grassroots Abercrombie & Kent Philanthropy projects like these are included on several of our Africa itineraries (look for the A&K Philanthropy symbol ) , welcoming our guests to participate in travel that changes lives.

Excellence Recognized by Travellers and Travel Pros

A&K's African safaris have won acclaim from guests and travel professionals alike. We were named Best Tour Operator in Africa for 17 years by the readers of Travel Weekly, the World's Leading Luxury Safari Company at the World Travel Awards and the Best Escorted Tour Operator for Africa at the Travvy Awards. In Africa and throughout the world, A&K sets the standard.

“I can't imagine a better safari journey. A&K clearly knows Africa and hires excellent people. Our guide was unique. He has feet in both the Maasai and modern world and shares that knowledge without pretense.”

— Theodore; Naples, FL,
The Great Migration Safari in Style

East Africa or Southern Africa: Know the difference, then decide.

Which Africa Do You Want to Explore?

As you decide which A&K safari journey best suits your travel interests, it helps to understand how the safari experience differs between East Africa and Southern Africa.

East Africa: A Classic Appeal

East Africa's Kenya and Tanzania are the definition of classic safari country. Home to the vast Serengeti and Masai Mara as well as the teeming Ngorongoro Crater, East Africa has formed the backdrop for legendary safari expeditions since the days of Ernest Hemingway and Isak Dinesen, and served as the birthplace of A&K.

In northern Tanzania, the seemingly endless horizon of East Africa yields to Mount Kilimanjaro — the tallest mountain in Africa, at over 19,000 feet. Those who would conquer it can do so in style with A&K, enjoying the highest summit rate of any operator in Africa.

Wildlife viewing throughout Kenya and Tanzania is reliably spectacular. The famed Big Five — lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and Cape buffalo — are sighted here on a regular basis, along with hundreds of other species, ranging from wildebeest and zebra to antelope and cheetah. Primate tracking lends another dimension to East Africa's appeal, and up-close encounters with endangered mountain gorilla are yours to experience with A&K in Uganda and Rwanda.

Southern Africa: Dynamic and Diverse

Southern Africa, an area encompassing Zambia, Zimbabwe, Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, offers a wide variety of scenic terrain, from the upland forests of Botswana to incomparable Victoria Falls. It also enables you to experience an enticing mix of wildlife viewing and modern, world-class culture and cuisine in South Africa.

On the wildlife side, Southern Africa is diverse, with the iconic big cats — lion, leopard and cheetah — always on the prowl. In Botswana, the lush Okavango Delta draws a profusion of hippo, giraffe, crocodile, rhino and baboon, which A&K guests encounter in the uncrowded intimacy of private game reserves.

The nation of South Africa offers first-rate culinary and cultural opportunities, ranging from tastings at award-winning wineries in the ruggedly beautiful Cape Winelands to visits to historical sites and the majestic Table Mountain in the country's cosmopolitan "Mother City," Cape Town.

Namibia, in contrast, presents almost otherworldly landscapes, including the stunning Sossusvlei, with its red sand dunes rising from a pale salt pan, as well as the wind-blown Skeleton Coast, its sands dotted with rusting shipwrecks. Only here can you encounter the Himba people, nomads of the desert.

Which safari is right for you?

Select the safari experience of your dreams from an array of distinctive A&K journeys.

Explore via Private Chartered Air with Wings Over the World

For the ultimate safari experience, Wings Over East Africa and Wings Over Southern Africa unite the continent's iconic game regions in single, all-encompassing itineraries, linking each destination via private chartered flights arranged to help you make the most of every day.

A Range of Journeys Exploring Culture and Wildlife

From Kenya & Tanzania Wildlife Safari and its family departures to South Africa & Victoria Falls and Namibia: Dunes & Desert Safari, A&K offers a wealth of journeys that illuminate every facet of Africa, including its history and culture as well as its wildlife and scenic beauty.

Safari in Style Reveals the Continent at Its Best

Our flagship Safari in Style journeys feature boutique lodgings expressly designed for smaller groups, including our select portfolio of luxury tented camps – the most authentic and luxurious safari experience. Look for our Great Migration, Kenya, Tanzania and Botswana journeys.

We Can Create a Safari That's Just Right for You

When only a private Africa adventure will do, let our experts customize a Luxury Tailor Made Journey to your exact specifications, for just you and your family or private party, so your safari is exactly what you've always imagined it could be.

Active Adventures: Climbing Kilimanjaro and Tracking Gorillas in Uganda

If you're looking for an adventure even more active than a traditional safari, how about scaling the world's tallest freestanding mountain? A&K has the most successful climbing operation on snow-capped Mount Kilimanjaro, featuring a summit rate of 97%. See page 60 for more on climbing Kilimanjaro with Abercrombie & Kent.

We also offer opportunities to track the endangered mountain gorilla in the verdant hills of Uganda, and to observe our close genetic cousin, the chimpanzee, in its natural habitat.

THE GREAT MIGRATION

Discover the year-round allure of the Great Migration.

Throughout the year, East Africa's wide-open grasslands bear witness to the Great Migration (see map at left), as millions of wildebeest, zebra, antelope and other herd animals circulate through the region in search of water and fresh grazing land, part of the never-ending cycle of life on the vast East African plains. While dramatic river crossings are often associated with the Great Migration, they are actually just one thread in a complex tapestry encompassing calving, mating rituals and the shifting fortunes of the herd.

From the Serengeti to the Masai Mara, A&K's passionate Resident Tour Directors and expert driver-guides will help you experience the majesty of the Great Migration, wherever you may encounter it and regardless of when you choose to explore Africa.

A Bird's-Eye View of Wildlife and a Private Air Advantage

The charter flights featured on Wings Over East Africa serve as a distinctive type of safari experience in and of themselves, in particular your flight to the Masai Mara Game Reserve, which affords sights of the region's incredible wildlife and gorgeous landscapes that simply can't be duplicated from ground level.

The Mara is home to one of the world's most impressive concentrations of wildlife, and your pilot-guides, skilled in low-level flying, give you the opportunity for a closer look at it than you've most likely ever experienced by air. To the south, the grassy plains of the plateau break into valleys, cliffs and escarpments that frame stunning views up to snowy Mount Kenya. Enjoy lunch at the camp, followed by an afternoon game drive capped off with a Scenic Sundowner. Elewana Loisaba Tented Camp | Meals: B L D

Loisaba Conservancy is one of Kenya's elephant movement corridors, linking Laikipia to Samburu, so the great animals can range easily between vital habitats. It is also home to the endangered Grevy's zebra, the reticulated giraffe, the beautiful greater kudu and the rare African wild dog.

DAY 3: Laikipia Plateau | Design Your Day

On an early morning game drive, immerse yourself in Loisaba Conservancy, a haven for more than 250 species of birds and 50 species of wildlife. In addition to elephant, buffalo and Grevy's zebra, be on the lookout for the big cats, and even rare wild dog. After your bush breakfast, Ride Like a Local on a camel — a traditional form of transport in the region. Later, enjoy one of these Design Your Day activities.

- ▶ Take a Walking Safari with a Samburu Guide to view and learn about the stunning diversity of Loisaba up close.

A leopard checks for the scent of prey in the boundless Serengeti

- ▶ Ride by Horse, drawing gently near plains and forest animals such as zebra, giraffe and even elephant.
- ▶ Visit an Anti-Poaching Dog Unit to discover their daily routine and watch an anti-poaching demonstration.

Return to your camp for lunch and an afternoon at leisure. Later, enjoy dinner in camp on a relaxing evening under the stars. Elewana Loisaba Tented Camp | Meals: B L D

DAY 4: Masai Mara Game Reserve | Where Lions Roam
Fly to the Masai Mara Game Reserve, set in the Masai Mara's vast plain teeming with animals, to discover the greatest

DAY 5: Masai Mara Game Reserve | Into the Bush
Over the next two exciting days at your camp, drive across the sprawling savanna in search of abundant game in one of Kenya's most spectacular game reserves. Running along the Tanzanian border, the Mara forms an essential part of the Serengeti ecosystem. Each year, more than a million

DAY 8: Serengeti National Park | Spectacular Serengeti
Explore the Serengeti for two days, enjoying morning and afternoon game viewing in this vast, sun-drenched region. Rivers flow through the park, providing habitats for a variety of birds, mammals and reptiles, while antelope can be seen feeding on the plains. Nimali Mara | Meals: B L D

DAY 9: Serengeti National Park | Seeking the Big Five
Search for Africa's iconic Big Five (lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and Cape buffalo) as well as the lesser-known but fascinating Little Five (ant lion, leopard tortoise, elephant shrew, rhinoceros beetle and buffalo weaver), which may be hiding behind a stone or resting on an acacia branch. Return to your lodge under a golden sunset. Nimali Mara | Meals: B L D

Witness the incomparable phenomenon of the Great Migration, when innumerable wildebeest and zebra herds course through the plains in search of fresh grass and water while hungry predators await them throughout their journey.

DAY 10: Depart Arusha

Bid farewell to the Serengeti today and fly to Arusha. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel, where a comfortable dayroom awaits. The Stark Beauty of Sossusvlei, Namibia

Namibia's Sossusvlei is a salt-and-clay pan (or dried-up lake bed) found among the spectacular red-sand dunes of the Namib Desert, which stretches for 1,200 miles along southern Africa's Atlantic coast. This region's vistas of austere, almost otherworldly beauty are never on more vivid display than during the hot air balloon ride included during your three-night stay here.

The pale color of the pan, punctuated by gnarled black tree trunks, contrasts vividly with the Mars-like red of the dunes surrounding it, prompting the feeling you've been magically transported to another planet. "Fairy circles" — naturally occurring, ring-like depressions in the earth that dot the landscape — only add to Sossusvlei's uncanny sense of place.

Nighttime offers its contrasts as well, with daytime desert temperatures cooling significantly after sunset. And since Sossusvlei is part of a dark-sky reserve, a marvelous display of astronomical wonders awaits anyone willing to brave the chill. Let a resident astronomer guide take you on a tour by telescope of the southern constellations.

Far off the beaten path, Sossusvlei is usually a stand-alone destination, yet A&K is able to include it as part of a broader portrait of Southern Africa, thanks to privately chartered air.

DAY 9: Sossusvlei | Hot Air Balloon Ride

Rise before dawn for a hot air balloon adventure, sailing on the wind over the endlessly fascinating terrain of the world's oldest desert, viewing it from a new perspective. Upon landing, enjoy breakfast in the desert. This afternoon, you may opt to venture out for a guided trail ride over the stark desert panorama on an e-bike, taking in the awe-inspiring terrain. andBeyond Sossusvlei Desert Lodge | Meals: B L D

Climbing Kilimanjaro with A&K

With a successful summit rate of 97% (compared to the average of 60–70%), A&K's Mount Kilimanjaro expeditions give you an outstanding chance of reaching “the roof of Africa.” Our experienced climbing team oversees every factor that contributes to a successful climb.

Guides and Porters

Every A&K guide is a certified Wilderness First Responder, trained in mountain craft, natural history and ecological awareness. Our guides are also trained in first aid and fluent in English, and most have completed over 200 summits. A founding member of Kilimanjaro Porter Assistance Project and a proud Partner for Responsible Travel with the International Mountain Explorers Connection, A&K is an advocate for the welfare of our team of porters. Their hard work and dedication are what make every A&K trek possible.

Comforts on the Mountain

Summitting Mount Kilimanjaro comes easier to those who are well rested — and A&K campsites are famous for their comforts. Our customized sleeping tents are the largest and most luxurious on the mountain, designed for two people with raised cots and tall ceiling heights. Solar-lit dining tents with comfortable tables and chairs allow you to relax out of the elements and rejuvenate during the trek. Hygienic private toilets are also exclusively available to A&K trekkers.

Safety on the Mountain

A&K climbs use the finest climbing and camping apparatus, safety equipment and communications network. On every climb, we supply and carry all safety and emergency equipment, including emergency oxygen, a portable altitude chamber, a defibrillator, pulse oximeters, a stretcher, an extensive first aid kit and three means of communication (cellphone, two-way radio and satellite phone).

Food and Nutrition

Another key to conquering Kilimanjaro is to maintain proper nutrition throughout your entire trek. Every meal is designed to provide the nutrition you need to reach the summit. Unlike many other companies, A&K provides fresh food throughout the entire trek, including abundant snacks between meals as well as unlimited purified water. Special diets can also be accommodated.

Acclimatization

While most trekkers spend a total of five days on the mountain, we schedule seven days (six nights) to allow more time for premium altitude acclimatization, contributing to A&K's industry-leading summit rate.

Sustainable Treks

A&K leaves no trace on the mountain and takes pride in operating green campsites. Every A&K camp is completely portable, with no fixed ground structures or plumbing, and we remove all waste and trash from our treks.

Take in the epic vistas en route to Uhuru Peak, Africa's highest point at Barafu Camp (15,300 feet) on a moraine, with views of majestic Mawenzi Peak to the right and looming Kibo Peak overhead. As the sun rises, continue around the rim to Uhuru Peak (19,341 feet), the highest point in Africa, where the air is rarefied. For a period of 500 years beginning in the 16th century BC, tombs were built along this valley for pharaohs and nobles, including that of "the boy king," Tutankhamun. Enter the tomb of Tutankhamun — found in 1922 by British archaeologist and Egyptologist Howard Carter — to discover the secrets of this storied chamber. Next, descend into the beautifully decorated tomb of Seti I, the father of Ramses II, one of the best-preserved tombs in the valley.

Four Ultimate Destinations

It's hard to imagine four European capitals that have had a greater impact on world history, culture and cuisine than the glittering quartet featured on this inspiring grand adventure.

Rome served as the central hub in the wheel of Western history for centuries. The ancient Romans used their military might to conquer and colonize, and when it comes to living life with a passion for good food, fine wine and immortal art, the Eternal City still rules.

As the birthplace of democracy and drama, classical Athens' influences extend unbroken into the present. Its iconic landmarks, like the magnificent Parthenon, bear witness to its past greatness and its idyllic beauty lives on to help inspire your modern-day odyssey, achieved with ease by private air.

Ancient Cultures Linked by the Sea

Few bodies of water on earth have played a more central role in the development of human civilization than the Mediterranean Sea. It was here that the ancient Phoenicians, Greeks and Romans sailed forth to explore new lands, do battle and conduct trade, spreading aspects of their distinctive cultures into Europe, Asia, North Africa and the Middle East as they went.

Time and tide rolled on, and new dynasties arose. The Moors conquered the northern coast of Africa and ruled Iberia for seven centuries until the crusader knights overcame them, leaving their own mark on Mediterranean history. Later still came the Venetians, who used their economic, cultural and naval might to dominate life on and around the sea.

Wings Over the Mediterranean is designed to reveal the common threads these bygone peoples wove throughout the entire region during their travels, and to discern remnants of their faded cultures that still linger today in the destinations you visit.

Only A&K's ability to craft one-of-a-kind itineraries utilizing privately chartered flights offers you this comprehensive perspective in a shorter time than ever before possible, on a single luxurious journey.

Legacy of the Moors

Spain and Morocco are both nations with rich and colorful histories influenced by many cultures down through the centuries — but perhaps by none more so than that of the Moors. The Moorish presence here began when Muslims from eastern North Africa, including Berbers and Arabs, expanded westward and northward across the Mediterranean Sea. In 711, they conquered Visigothic Hispania (the Iberian Peninsula). Later, the Berber Revolt in the Maghreb — a region that includes modern-day Morocco — led to eventual Moorish rule along the southern coast of the Mediterranean.

Over the next 700 years, the Moors developed a culture devoted to Islam while remaining comparatively tolerant of other religions. They built magnificent mosques and impressive seats of learning, including some of the oldest continuously operating universities in the world. Christian Europeans waged a centuries-long war dubbed the Reconquista to reclaim Iberia, which culminated in 1492. Moorish power later faded across Morocco as well.

Today, A&K's superb Resident Tour Directors and local guides excel at providing visitors with an in-depth understanding of the Moors' legacy of lyrical architecture, tantalizing cuisine and commitment to education, which still influences life throughout the region.

DAY 8: Marrakech | Historic Gardens & Design Your Day

Arrive in Guayaquil, where you are met and transferred to your hotel. Hotel del Parque

DAY 2: The Galápagos | On Board 'La Pinta'

Fly to Baltra in the remote Galápagos Islands, a haven for the diversity of wildlife that first led naturalist Charles Darwin to propose that species evolved in response to their environment. You are met by your naturalist guide and escorted to 'La Pinta,' your home for a six-night cruise through the Galápagos' western islands, a route that offers a higher number of endemic species than other island groupings. After an introductory briefing followed by lunch, cruise to North Seymour Island for your first shore excursion. Walk along the coast and the interior of this beautiful flat island, observing numerous bird colonies as well as sea lion and land iguana. You may also opt to explore just offshore by dinghy. This evening, return to 'La Pinta' for a welcome cocktail and dinner. Each evening, your time is your own: Attend a lecture presented by one of your affable guides, who recaps the day and gives a sneak peek at tomorrow's itinerary; explore the mysteries of the night sky with a fascinating astronomy talk; peruse the ship's library for further insight into a species you encountered; or gather in the lounge to cap off a day of extraordinary discoveries. Drift asleep in your air-conditioned cabin to the rise and fall of gentle ocean swells. 'La Pinta' | Meals: B L D

DAY 3: The Galápagos | Isabela & Fernandina

Today, begin at Isabela Island (Punta Vicente Roca). Since there is no landing site at this location, explore the coast by skiff while your naturalist guide explains the dramatic geology of the area, such as the remains of lava flows and tuff rock layers. Watch for the island's abundant wildlife and snorkel along the cliffs, possibly in the company of a green sea turtle. This afternoon, visit the youngest and most pristine island of the archipelago, Fernandina (Punta Espinoza), to go ashore and view its combination of barrenness and abundant wildlife. Watch for species such as hawk, penguin and flightless cormorant as you take in the astounding views of the surrounding volcanic landscapes. 'La Pinta' | Meals: B L D

DAY 4: The Galápagos | Urbina Bay & Tagus Cove

Disembark at Urbina Bay, on the western side of Isabela Island, to view corals, shells and large, colorful Galápagos land iguana. You may also sight giant tortoise further inland. Cruise up to secluded Tagus Cove on the island's northwest

Get up close to the curious and diverse wildlife of the Galápagos

coast, once a favorite anchorage for pirates and whalers. Go ashore for a hike to saltwater-filled Darwin Crater. Opt to snorkel or kayak if you wish before your hike. Return to the ship for a Scenic Sundowner and dinner. 'La Pinta' | Meals: B L D

DAY 5: The Galápagos | Rábida & Santa Cruz

Go ashore on Rábida Island's beach to view marine iguana, mockingbird, yellow warbler and several species of Darwin's finch. This is a great place to snorkel from the beach. Non-snorkelers may opt to explore via glass-bottom boat. Proceed to the north shore of Santa Cruz Island to view the fascinating landscapes of Cerro Dragón (Dragon Hill). Circle a lagoon frequented by sea birds, such as red-footed booby, and trek inland to sight land iguana. 'La Pinta' | Meals: B L D

DAY 6: The Galápagos | Encounter the Giant Tortoise

Continue your explorations on Santa Cruz with a visit to Puerto Ayora and the Charles Darwin Research Station. Get up close to the examples of giant tortoise living on site in a prickly pear cactus forest. Learn from about their latest conservation efforts, and then head to the highlands for lunch. Afterward, view the exuberant vegetation where

Dolphin is one of many seagoing species you may observe each day

Get to know the prominent species of Santa Cruz Island, including the blue-footed booby

Meet the Natives

From the finches that inspired Darwin to the whales that return to the islands each fall, wildlife sets the Galápagos apart. Encounter each island's unique species up close with the help of your naturalist guide.

Sea Lion

The social sea lion hardly bats an eye at human visitors. When not congregating on the beach, sea lions are swift, powerful swimmers. Want to swim among the sea lions? January through March is a great time of year for water clarity and warmer temperatures. Or come in October for a chance to snorkel with sea lion pups.

Great Frigatebird

Noted for the vivid red gular sac of the male of the species, which he inflates to impress females during courtship, the frigatebird glides over the water on narrow wings that can span over six feet.

Sally Lightfoot Crab

This brilliant-hued crab is perhaps the islands' most photogenic species. It occupies the rocky coasts, feeding on algae year-round.

Blue-Footed Booby

Given to foot-stamping mating displays that make it a favorite of Galápagos visitors, the endearing blue-footed booby may be found mating and nesting year-round, depending on conditions.

Marine Iguana & Land Iguana

Called "imps of darkness" by Darwin, marine iguanas are adapted to the water, with finlike tails and teeth designed to scrape algae from rocks. They begin nesting in February. Their terrestrial kin, the land iguana, prefers dining on prickly pear cactus and has a mating schedule that varies by island.

Galápagos Penguin

Both the rarest and the most northerly penguin species, this island denizen arrived at the Galápagos via the chilly Humboldt Current from Antarctica. Penguin and many other Galápagos bird species, such as red-footed booby, start nesting in January.

Giant Tortoise

Overhunting and habitat loss nearly drove these placid, stately reptiles to extinction. Happily, conservation efforts are proving successful and many subspecies' populations are on the rise. Visit in January to see tortoise laying eggs. Come between March and May to see their rare aquatic cousin, the green sea turtle, nesting on the beaches.

Go ashore to walk the life-filled volcanic landscape of Fernandina Island

Then, land at Post Office Bay to visit the historic barrel that has been serving as a post office in the archipelago for over two centuries. Return to the ship to proceed to Punta Cormorant. Before disembarking, snorkel or ride by glass-bottom boat, viewing life beneath the waves. Cruise along the coast of an extinct volcanic cone called Champion Islet. Later, go ashore at Punta Cormorant for an easy walk beside a brackish water lagoon where the greater flamingo may be observed. Venture to the other side of the island to find a white-sand beach where sea turtle come to nest at night. 'La Pinta' | Meals: B L D

DAY 8: Guayaquil | A Fond Farewell
