SANCTUARY CHIEF'S CAMP

Okavango Delta, Botswana

Renowned for its outstanding game viewing and exceptional service, Sanctuary Chief's Camp is located on Chief's Island in the Okavango Delta's Moremi Game Reserve. Situated in the "predator capital of Africa," the camp's 10 new secluded bush pavilions feature a private deck and plunge pool. En suite bathrooms include floor-to-ceiling windows, a spacious outdoor shower and an indulgently large bathtub. For those seeking the utmost in privacy, the Geoffrey Kent Suite can accommodate up to six guests, offering two pavilions, a private kitchen, indoor lounge, private boma with firepit, secluded deck area, a private vehicle and guide, a personal waiter, and a private housekeeper. The main lodge offers a dining and bar area, library, pool, and spa. Activities include game drives, mokoro (local canoe) excursions and, at an additional cost, helicopter flights. Condé Nast Traveler routinely rates Sanctuary Chief's Camp as one of Africa's top safari destinations.

SANCTUARY CHOBE CHILWERO

Chobe National Park, Botswana

Sanctuary Chobe Chilwero is a luxurious riverside retreat in the heart of the bush on the edge of Chobe National Park, home to the world's largest remaining population of elephants. Sitting above the Chobe River, the lodge offers unparalleled panoramic views across the islands and floodplains as far across as Namibia. This refined retreat relaunched in early 2019 with 15 stunning, breezy suites, including three new family suites and a pool suite with a private plunge pool. Relax in the split-level swimming pool, unwind with a pampering session in the spa or enjoy the gourmet food that the lodge has become known for. Activities include game drives and river cruises. Fishing excursions and tours of Victoria Falls are also available at an additional cost.

SANCTUARY STANLEY'S CAMP

Okavango Delta, Botswana

Set on a 260,000-acre private concession in the wildlife-rich Okavango Delta, Sanctuary Stanley's Camp features 10 luxury canvas tents boasting five-star features. The accommodations have been crafted with sustainability in mind to evoke the days of explorer Henry Stanley. Each tent has a deck with views over the dramatic floodplains, allowing prime game viewing right from the beds. The in-room experience is enhanced with a compact gym, yoga bag, minibar and coffee station. The breezy central tent affords a relaxing sanctuary on summer evenings. Here, the new Explorer Lounge invites guests to discover more about the delta ahead of their explorations. There's also a sociable outdoor bar with expansive views of the floodplains. The camp also offers varied game-viewing experiences and unique elephant interaction.

SANCTUARY BAINES' CAMP

Okavango Delta, Botswana

Perched above the Boro River in a private concession bordering the Moremi Game Reserve, Sanctuary Baines' Camp and its stilted, standalone suites have been transformed with larger spaces, extended decking and artistic interiors. The six raised abodes at this boutique camp have light and airy bedrooms overlooking the river. Each suite features a private terrace, where guests can choose to sleep in the open or take a soak under the stars in a unique star bath. Activities include game drives, walking safaris, and motorboat or canoe excursions. The camp also offers an immersive elephant experience and helicopter flights at an additional cost.

SANCTUARY SUSSI & CHUMA

Mosi-oa-Tunya National Park, Zambia

A boutique riverside retreat with an enlightened take on sophisticated safari life, Sanctuary Sussi & Chuma is set in the heart of Mosi-oa-Tunya National Park at the edge of a dramatic bend in the Zambezi. The lodge boasts 12 tree houses surrounded by jackalberry trees and linked by high-up wooden walkways. Every Sussi tree house has a riverfront terrace, bath and five-star creature comforts. The vast deck features an outdoor bar and firepit, maximizing the magic of sunset. Inside, guests will find the restaurant, as well as the Livingstone bar, which offers an intimate space for cocktails and nightcaps. Handcrafted workmanship and contemporary design create an environment that showcases Sanctuary Sussi & Chuma's authentic African spirit. The natural setting and polished service of this lodge make it ideal for the most discerning travellers and safari lovers.

SANCTUARY MAKANYANE SAFARI LODGE

Madikwe Game Reserve, South Africa

Set in lush riverside forests hugging the edge of a ravine, Sanctuary Makanyane Safari Lodge is situated on private grounds within the malaria-free, Big Five-filled Madikwe Game Reserve. Each of the lodge's eight secluded suites overlook the Marico River and feature open-fronted lounges, private sun decks, and spacious en suite bathrooms with indoor and outdoor showers. The stylish main lodge boasts a spacious lounge, dining area, outdoor deck, spa, air-conditioned gym and infinity swimming pool. Luxurious accommodations, exceptional cuisine, welcoming service and thrilling game viewing combines to create an unforgettable luxury safari experience. The lodge caters for just 16 guests, ensuring personal attention and exclusivity.

BELMOND MOUNT NELSON HOTEL
Cape Town, South Africa

Captivating visitors since 1899, Cape Town's iconic resort hotel offers 198 individually designed rooms and suites just moments from the city's buzzing heart. Guests can stroll through our expansive gardens; take a tree tour; browse the outdoor sculpture exhibition; or discover the hotel's history, art and culture on self-guided tours. Guests can also enjoy imaginative cuisine in our restaurants and soothing bliss at the spa, with the pulsating city lying just beyond our gates.

BELMOND EAGLE ISLAND LODGE
Okavango Delta, Botswana

Belmond Eagle Island Lodge offers guests a completely reimagined water safari experience. The tented rooms' design highlights include spacious outdoor decks overlooking the Okavango Delta, private plunge pools, indoor and outdoor showers, a reading nook, and walk-in wardrobes. Belmond Eagle Island Lodge offers a variety of water-focused safaris, including motorboat, barge and mokoro (local canoe) excursions, as well as airborne safaris by helicopter.

BELMOND SAVUTE ELEPHANT LODGE
Okavango Delta, Botswana

Set in the untamed wilderness of Botswana's Savute region, Belmond Savute Elephant Lodge evokes the feel of a timeless explorers' base. In sustainably designed spaces infused with local craftsmanship, guests relax on generous terraces soaking up the views, watch magnificent beasts from the viewing hide, and gather round the campfire for an enchanting boma dining experience.

BELMOND KHWAI RIVER LODGE
Moremi Game Reserve, Botswana

Nestled on the edge of a leadwood and fig tree forest, overlooking the vast Khwai River floodplains in Moremi Wildlife Reserve, sits the luxurious Belmond Khwai River Lodge. Rated as one of the most prolific places in Botswana for viewing wildlife, see large concentrations and a wide variety of wildlife from the comfort of your own private deck. The exceptional location brings you close to Africa's heartbeat and the center of a world that has not been altered since life began.

ROYAL MALEWANE & THE FARMSTEAD

Thornybush Game Reserve, South Africa

Royal Malewane is one of Africa's most exclusive Big Five safari lodges. Set in the heart of South Africa's Greater Kruger National Park, the guiding team at Royal Malewane is among the most qualified in Africa, delivering an unrivaled wildlife experience. An award-winning spa and world-class cuisine complete the scene with accommodation at Main Lodge as well as the newly opened Farmstead. Africa House is a luxurious, six-bedroom family villa offering private services.

BIRKENHEAD HOUSE

Hermanus, South Africa

Perched atop the cliffs of the seaside town of Hermanus, Birkenhead House boasts ocean views and convenient beachfront access. The hotel's 11 breezy, beach-house-inspired suites feature scenic balconies, underfloor heating and oversized bathtubs. On-site amenities include treatment rooms, a pool, wine-tasting room and gym, as well as a dining room specializing in freshly caught seafood. Guests can also enjoy beach walking, golf, whale watching and even shark cage diving.

LA RESIDENCE

Franschhoek, South Africa

Tucked into the Franschhoek Valley, La Residence is a five-minute drive from the village's charming shops, restaurants and galleries. Situated on a 30-acre estate, La Residence offers 11 suites appointed with exquisite antique furniture and palatial en suite bathrooms. The Vineyard Suites are just a stone's throw away, offering five spacious villas accommodating up to 20 guests. All have private terraces and gardens; three have their own pool.

THE SILO HOTEL

Cape Town, South Africa

Set above the Zeitz Museum of Contemporary Art Africa (MOCAA) in the heart of Cape Town's bustling V&A Waterfront, The Silo is a luxury hotel unlike any other. With domed glass windows conceived by acclaimed industrial designer Thomas Heatherwick, The Royal Portfolio's latest addition showcases the most spectacular views of Cape Town's Table Mountain, Lion's Head, Signal Hill and Robben Island. It offers easy access to trendy restaurants, bars and boutiques.

ONE&ONLY CAPE TOWN

Cape Town, South Africa

One&Only Cape Town is renowned in South Africa for its unique blend of location and luxury, an urban chic resort in the heart of the city, within the secure and vibrant Victoria & Alfred Waterfront. An array of magnificent, spacious rooms offer the choice to wake up in an inner-city sanctuary, or aloft in the superb seven-story Marina Rise, gazing upon the stunning Table Mountain — among the New 7 Wonders of Nature. Dining options include the Michelin-starred Nobu; the award-winning Reuben's; and Isola, an al fresco Mediterranean spot by the pool in the heart of the resort's private island. Your day may be spent near Cape Town's largest infinity pool, or in the spa to rejuvenate or beautify. Meanwhile, our KidsOnly Club delivers an amazing program for the younger members of the family. Whichever stay you choose, our fabulous hosts ensure you become the ultimate curator of discovery, with activities ranging from active adventures to mindful moments and exclusive, tailored experiences.

LION SANDS GAME RESERVE

Sabi Sand Game Reserve and Kruger National Park, South Africa

In the heart of game-rich Sabi Sand Game Reserve and renowned Kruger National Park lies Lion Sands Game Reserve, as iconic a safari destination as you will find anywhere in Africa. The reserve offers four lodges within Sabi Sand and Kruger National Park, all on the banks of the Sabie River, with unspoiled views. Each of the 18 suites at River Lodge has its own private viewing deck, perfect for watching wildlife. Tinga and Narina lodges each have nine private suites (each with their own private pool) located on a private concession in Kruger National Park, making it a very personal experience for all guests. The lodges are subtle, sophisticated and serene — an escape that everyone should enjoy at least once in their lifetime. The award-winning Ivory Lodge consists of eight one-bedroom villas and one two-bedroom private villa. Each Ivory Lodge villa features a rim-flow pool; a large, well-appointed bedroom and lounge with fireplace; and an outdoor shower.

LONDOLOZI

Sabi Sand Game Reserve, South Africa

Londolozi is one of South Africa's original private game reserves. A pillar of global ecotourism, we are also a proud family-run business. The word Londolozi comes from a Zulu word meaning “protector of all living things.” Our name reflects the ambitious conservation ethic in our relationship with the natural world. The reserve has been lauded internationally for its foresight and progressive land- and wildlife-management practices, as well as its productive community involvement. Our emphasis on conservation and a village ethos stands alongside a commitment to luxurious accommodation, fine cuisine and exceptional service. In 1993, Londolozi became the first game reserve in the world to be accorded Relais & Châteaux status. Londolozi is situated on the Sand River in the heart of the Sabi Sand Game Reserve within the Greater Kruger National Park.

LEOPARD HILLS

Sabi Sand Game Reserve, South Africa

Award-winning Leopard Hills is located in the western sector of the renowned Sabi Sand Game Reserve, bordering the world-famous Kruger National Park. Perched on a rocky outcrop, the lodge boasts magnificent views over the bush and an active waterhole on the plains below. Leopard Hills spans nearly 25,000 acres of diverse ecosystems, making it ideal for observing wild game in its natural habitat. Here, the Big Five abound, and seeing them up close is our specialty.

KINGS CAMP

Timbavati Game Reserve, South Africa

Nestled in the Timbavati Private Nature Reserve, Kings Camp reflects the charm and romance of a colonial past in a pristine corner of Africa. The reserve faces an open savanna and a waterhole, which is frequented by a wide variety of wildlife, day and night. Nine spacious colonial suites are luxuriously equipped with air conditioning, Victorian ball-and-claw bath, indoor and outdoor double shower, fully stocked minibar, and private veranda with rim-flow pool.

SABI SABI

Sabi Sand Game Reserve, South Africa

Over a period of four decades, Sabi Sabi has protected the wilderness in its care, emerging as an iconic, world-renowned luxury safari destination. Within this oasis, Sabi Sabi's four five-star lodges capture the design features of the "yesterday, today and tomorrow" concept. Selati Camp epitomizes the classic safari era with seven beautifully appointed suites, including the opulent Ivory Presidential Suite. A contemporary experience is found at family-friendly Bush Lodge, with 25 suites including the Mandleve Deluxe Suite and the magnificent Luxury Villas. The idyllic hideaway of Little Bush Camp reflects an African experience, boasting six exquisite suites. Earth Lodge looks toward tomorrow with the Amber Presidential Suite and 12 other glorious suites reflecting Africa's vast mineral wealth.

MALAMALA GAME RESERVE

MalaMala Game Reserve, South Africa

MalaMala Game Reserve is the benchmark for the luxury safari industry in Southern Africa. It is one of the largest private Big Five game reserves in South Africa and is world-renowned for offering some of the finest and most consistent Big Five game viewing this side of the equator. Preserving and protecting the environmental integrity of this special piece of Africa has always been at the core of MalaMala's existence. The reserve's three camps offer guests a world of warmth, hospitality and understated elegance reminiscent of a safari era long past. Guests can choose from the relaxed, family-friendly atmosphere of MalaMala Camp, the sophisticated refinement of Sable Camp or the classical elegance of the adults-only Rattray's Camp. With exclusive traversing on over seventy percent of the property, four guests per safari vehicle at Rattray's Camp, and six guests per safari vehicle at Sable Camp and MalaMala Camp, this reserve is the preferred choice of serious safari connoisseurs.

TSWALU

Tswalu Kalahari Private Game Reserve, South Africa

Tswalu is South Africa's largest private game reserve, a vast, malaria-free wilderness with superlative game viewing, including desert black rhino, black-maned Kalahari lions and meerkats. Catering to just 30 guests in two luxury camps, the Motse and Tarkuni, the emphasis is on flexibility and exclusivity. Design your own itinerary, anything from game drives, bush picnics and horseback safaris to evenings in the boma, dining among the dunes and gourmet meals served on the pool deck.

ULUSABA PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

Sabi Sand Game Reserve, South Africa

Ulusaba is Sir Richard Branson's safari lodge located in the Sabi Sand Game Reserve — an excellent place to observe the Big Five in the lap of luxury. Guests can share their time between the two lodges. Rock Lodge is perched high atop a hill, affording spectacular, panoramic views over miles of bush. Safari Lodge is built along the banks of the dry Mabrak riverbed, crisscrossed by whimsical swing bridges that connect the exquisite tree-house rooms.

MONT ROCHELLE

Franschhoek, South Africa

Sir Richard Branson's South African hotel and vineyard, Mont Rochelle, spans 100 acres and includes its own working winery. Discover the property in the picturesque village of Franschhoek, which clings to its French roots and is dotted in handsome Cape Dutch homesteads. This boutique luxury property offers 26 bedrooms, including the new Manor House villa, ideal for small groups and families. Dining options include picnics or relaxed lunches in Country Kitchen and gourmet dining in Miko, the hotel's two restaurants. Other amenities include a cocktail bar; gym; tennis court; outdoor pool; and Africology spa, which incorporates essential oils and natural plant extracts for a relaxing sojourn in a hammam (Turkish bath) or one of two treatment rooms. Just shy of an hour from stunning Cape Town — standing out for its flat-topped Table Mountain and honey-colored Cape Town City Hall — the hotel places both natural wonders and man-made treasures at your fingertips.

CHEETAH PLAINS

Sabi Sand Reserve, South Africa

The new Cheetah Plains features individual exclusive-use, luxurious Plains Houses, each consisting of a main house with four adjoining private guest suites. Each private Plains House main area boasts two lounges, dining area, outdoor boma, wine room and swimming pool. The four king-bed guest suites each have their own private deck, dressing room, lounge, double rain shower and bath overlooking the splendid African Bushveld. The exclusive Plains Houses are designed to offer a totally private safari experience tailored to suit the individual requirements of each exclusive-use house reservation. Offering guests unrivaled game-viewing opportunities, combined with state-of-the-art architectural design, the exclusive Cheetah Plains delivers exceptional safari luxury of the highest standard, complete with a private electric game-viewing vehicle, designated field guide and tracker. Each exclusive use house includes game drives, a spa therapist, choice of cellar wines and all chef-prepared meals.

Ngorongoro Crater, Tanzania

Situated on the rim of the crater, Sanctuary Ngorongoro Crater Camp and its brand-new safari tents rest among the region's striking acacia trees. All 10 of the classic canvas tents have been beautifully decorated and furnished with an earthy natural palette. Each tent has an en suite bathroom with an indoor camp shower. The lounge, dining room and wraparound deck have been raised up to ensure panoramic views over the flat-topped acacias.

SANCTUARY KICHAKANI SERENGETI CAMP

Serengeti National Park, Tanzania

Sanctuary Kichakani Serengeti Camp invites guests to experience the annual migration with an elegant contemporary take on the classic campaign aesthetic. This mobile tented camp can be packed up and moved along in a style evocative of the pioneering explorers of the 19th century, yet with all the modern comforts. Each tent has a wooden deck and en suite bathroom with authentic bucket shower. The camp's central canopy flows into lounges and dining wings.

SANCTUARY KUSINI

Serengeti National Park, Tanzania

Permanently located in the Serengeti's remote south, Sanctuary Kusini has the privilege of overlooking predator-populated plains, where game viewing is in high-definition throughout the calendar. The main lodge and 12 restyled open-plan en suite tents are set around a cluster of spectacular kopjes (small hills in flat areas). The rustic spirit of this intimate camp is totally in tune with local life and the magnificent East African landscapes, while the reimagined tents promise above-and-beyond luxuries. Nature doesn't provide theater much more dramatic than the sight of East Africa's herds of wildebeest and zebra on the move.

SANCTUARY GORILLA FOREST CAMP

Bwindi Impenetrable National Park, Uganda

Sanctuary Gorilla Forest Camp in Western Uganda offers luxury amid one of Africa's most amazing natural environments, the Bwindi Impenetrable Forest. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Bwindi is incredibly diverse, with numerous plant and animal species — including over 300 mountain gorillas. Each of the camp's eight tents has a spacious wooden veranda, where you may relax, enjoy a meal or simply absorb the breathtaking scenery of the surrounding rainforest.

ANGAMA MARA

Masai Mara Game Reserve, Kenya

High above Kenya's Masai Mara, where some of the most romantic scenes from Out of Africa were filmed, Angama Mara comprises two separate and intimate camps, each encompassing 15 glass-fronted tented suites. Built on the edge of the Great Rift Valley on one of the most sought-after sites on the continent, Angama Mara offers heart-stopping views as far as the eye can see and a warm Kenyan welcome. The owner-run lodge is just a 10-minute drive on a private access road from the Mara Triangle, which is home to Africa's great mammals and offers outstanding game viewing 12 months of the year. Tailor-made safari days are as action-packed or as gentle as guests choose them to be. Guests can experience hot air ballooning, walking safaris, garden-to-table lunches on the shamba (cultivated plot of ground), hosted photographic safaris, various interactions with the fascinating Maasai culture that surrounds the lodge — or simply do nothing at all.

ELEWANA THE MANOR AT NGORONGORO

Ngorongoro Crater, Tanzania

Located adjacent to the Ngorongoro Conservation Area within the 1,500-acre Shangri-La Coffee Estate, Elewana the Manor at Ngorongoro is reminiscent of an elegant Cape Dutch country farm home. With its luxurious guest cottages, the Manor provides a unique safari experience that fuses East African safari hospitality with old-world Afro-European architecture and decor. Guest cottages are beautifully appointed with plush, period-style furnishings.

ELEWANA TARANGIRE TREETOPS

Tarangire National Park, Tanzania

Elewana Tarangire Treetops sits serenely in a private game reserve bordering Tarangire National Park. Centered about a Main Lodge encasing a 1,000-year-old baobab tree, it features 20 elevated guest rooms with views over the surrounding marula and baobab trees. Each guest room boasts one of the largest bedrooms to be found in any camp or lodge in East Africa — with a floor space of 700 square feet — and all with a double-shower-equipped en suite bathroom.

ELEWANA SERENGETI PIONEER CAMP

Serengeti National Park, Tanzania

Elewana Serengeti Pioneer Camp is ideally situated to the annual migration and the Big Five. Paying homage to the mobile camps of the 1930s, a time when an African safari was truly a journey into the unknown, Serengeti Pioneer Camp's "zero footprint" and close proximity to nature combine to make an unmistakably distinctive and truly individual offering. Twelve tented accommodations all feature en suite facilities, including a flushing toilet, vanity basin and showers.

ELEWANA KILINDI ZANZIBAR

Zanzibar, Tanzania

Adjacent to the turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean sits elegant, romantic Elewana Kilindi Zanzibar. Featuring 15 arched, pavilion-style villas amid a 35-acre tropical garden, each has a private plunge pool, therapeutic rainfall shower and windows that afford spectacular ocean views. Elewana Kilindi Zanzibar is truly a place of peace and tranquility.

ELEWANA TORTILIS CAMP

Amboseli National Park, Kenya

Elewana Tortilis Camp enjoys a remote location on the quiet, unspoiled western boundary of Amboseli National Park with exclusive access to Kitirua private conservancy. With 16 luxury tents, one family tent and a private house, the hub of the camp is the main lounge and dining area — all exquisitely built with natural materials and thatched roofs, and offering spectacular views of Mount Kilimanjaro. Also enjoy game drives, bush breakfasts and guided bush walks.

ELEWANA ELSA'S KOPIJE

Meru National Park, Kenya

Nestled on Mughwango Hill, Elewana Elsa's Kopje looks out over the breathtaking Meru plains. Doze in one of six cottages, two honeymoon cottages and a family cottage, along with a private house featuring the perfect "room with a view." Romantic and elegant, this stunning lodge incorporates the natural features of the rocky hillside and ensures the ultimate safari destination. Amenities include an infinity pool, dining area and sundowner viewpoints.

ELEWANA LOISABA LODO SPRINGS

Loisaba Conservancy, Kenya

Located within the 57,000-acre Loisaba Conservancy, Elewana Loisaba Lodo Springs offers an ultra-private experience with eight spacious, individual tented rooms, each boasting impressive views of Laikipia Plateau and Mount Kenya. Elewana Guest Ambassadors cater to every need, and guests also enjoy the services of a highly qualified Elewana field guide who accompanies them for the duration of their stay. Experience an array of exciting activities, including game drives; bush meals; bush walks; bush sundowners; horse and camel riding; and access to the Loisaba Running Track, designed to provide each guest with a customizable workout. This beautiful wildlife conservancy reveals rivers, forests, springs, valleys and open plains, which remain an important haven for elephants. Successfully combining conservation, community and green operations, Loisaba ensures a profound impact on this critical ecosystem.

ONE&ONLY NYUNGWE HOUSE

Nyungwe Forest National Park, Rwanda

One&Only Nyungwe House is set on the edge of the Nyungwe Forest in Rwanda's mountainous southwest. Part of a working tea plantation, the hotel's roots are well-established, while its recent transformation provides a distinctly modern energy with incredible design and every comfort you could ever need or desire. Every newly transformed guest room and suite has been architecturally designed to blend seamlessly with the unique landscape, respecting the environment and perfectly framing the best aspects of Nyungwe's natural beauty. With an emphasis on indoor and outdoor living, you remain consistently connected to your surroundings, as extended furnished balconies open up to lush flora with mesmerizing aspects over the working tea plantation and forest beyond.

ONE&ONLY GORILLA'S NEST

Volcanoes National Park, Rwanda

One&Only Gorilla's Nest is the ultimate ultra-luxury resort, and the closest resort to Volcanoes National Park. Cushioned in the foothills of the breathtaking Virunga Mountain Range, the resort makes the magical possible as you enjoy a personal, once-in-a-lifetime encounter with the rare and majestic endangered mountain gorilla, which roams free in its own natural habitat. Taking its name from the five dormant volcanoes found in the park, Volcanoes National Park is categorized as a rainforest due to its montane ecosystem.

NOMAD TANZANIA

Tanzania

One of East Africa's original safari companies, Nomad Tanzania operates a beautiful collection of safari camps nestled in the wildest, most remote corners of Tanzania. Lamai Serengeti's open-fronted rooms are peppered around Kogakuria Kopje, a tumble of giant boulders that boast some of the most commanding views over the Northern Serengeti grasslands. More than a million wildebeests cross these plains each year in their relentless search for fresh pastures. Overlooking the mighty Rufiji River, Sand Rivers Selous treats you to spectacular views of its own, also from open-fronted rooms — the waters cleave 11 million acres of stunning wilderness, and are filled with hippos and crocodiles. Greystoke Mahale delivers the ultimate chimpanzee experience from Africa's most iconic castaway lodge. Set forth on a legendary journey in Mahale Mountains National Park, hiking among romping chimps, woodland scenery, scenic streams, ripening fruit and jasmine flowers.

As the first international brand to launch a world-class resort in Yangshuo, Banyan Tree reveals southeast China and its stunning panorama of jade-green mountains and rivers to discerning guests. Opened in autumn 2014, Banyan Tree Yangshuo is situated on the Li River, in the ancient township of Fuli, the home of the traditional Chinese painted fan. The surrounding of visually stunning Karst Mountains are complemented by the grace of the Li River. Banyan Tree Yangshuo has been designed as a village resort far from the hustle and bustle of the city, providing best-in-class facilities and breathtaking views of this impressive scenery across its 141 suites and villas. The property features bamboo rafting on the Li River and two restaurants and bars serving Asian specialties and international favorites. Guests can also enjoy a savory barbecue and refreshing cocktail by the Pool Bar. Rejuvenate body, mind and soul at the beautiful oriental spa, which makes use of ancient health traditions.

BANYAN TREE HUANGSHAN

Huangshan, China

In July of 2015, Banyan Tree Huangshan officially opened in the misty landscape of eastern China's Anhui Province, enshrouded by the great Mount Huangshan. The 10th Banyan Tree in China, it lies 70 minutes away from Huangshan City. Cultural adventurers and explorers will be fascinated by the ancient-styled dwellings of Xidi and Hongcun (both UNESCO World Heritage Sites), as well as the breathtaking Mount Huangshan, with its peculiarly shaped granite peaks, woody pine trees and hot springs. This perfect harmony of nature and culture embodies the sanctuary for the senses that is Banyan Tree Huangshan. Experience elegance and serenity in one of 127 stylish suites and villas, each boasting a beautiful wood balcony and breathtaking mountain views. Ming Yue restaurant delights with Anhui and Cantonese cuisine, while Qing Feng pairs tasty snacks with its signature afternoon tea. Other amenities include meeting facilities, a tree art gallery and spa.

BANYAN TREE LIJIANG

Lijiang, China

Immerse yourself in a fairy tale, where quaint bridges arch over water canals and cobblestone streets are lined with stunning architecture. Welcome to Lijiang. Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997, this town is the setting for luxurious Banyan Tree Lijiang, which is located over 6,500 feet above sea level. Admire the majesty of the legendary Jade Dragon Snow Mountain, a sacred sanctuary standing guard over the ethnic minorities since ancient times — just an hour’s drive from the resort. Step into any one of Banyan Tree Lijiang’s stunning villas or suites and be inspired by the breathtaking mountain views. Exotic pink stone and gray bricks on the exterior of each abode are complemented by the russet-red interiors with chino-styled teak furnishings.

BANYAN TREE RINGHA

Yunnan Province, China

Shangri-La exists high in the Himalayas, with Banyan Tree Ringha safely nestled within. Perched 10,500 feet above sea level, its surrounding, undulating landscape offers an alluring setting for a unique travel experience in a frontier destination. Each season brings with it its own kaleidoscope of colors. The secluded hideaway offers 32 suites and lodges. Each one features a fireplace, wooden balcony with unparalleled valley or river views, and a handcrafted wooden bathtub. Every suite and lodge features a wooden balcony and private terrace. The accommodations are created from authentic Tibetan farmhouses that have been relocated log by log to retain their original character. The property was the first member from China to be designated a “National Geographic Unique Lodge.”

THE RITZ-CARLTON, KYOTO

Kyoto, Japan

Perched along the idyllic Kamogawa River, the Ritz-Carlton, Kyoto affords easy walking access to the city's shopping, dining and entertainment districts. Often interpreted as a ryokan (traditional inn), the hotel offers 134 oversize rooms and suites. Guests can enjoy authentic Japanese cuisine at Mizuki, with its Michelin-starred Tempura; as well as Italian fare at La Locanda, with its dramatic, 110-year-old Ebisugawa-tei private rooms. Guest activities include temple chanting, bicycle tours, Zen gardening classes and sake tastings. The Ritz-Carlton Spa offers seven treatment rooms, a heated swimming pool and a 24-hour fitness center. Just as Kyoto completes any journey to Japan, a stay at the Ritz-Carlton, Kyoto is a must for any guest visiting this ancient capital.

AMAN TOKYO

Tokyo, Japan

Soaring above the city's financial district, Aman Tokyo occupies the top six floors of the iconic Otemachi Tower. With views over the Imperial Gardens toward Mount Fuji, it is a refined sanctuary in the sky. References to Japan's natural beauty and traditions reveal themselves at every turn, from magnificent ikebana plant displays to the ryokan-inspired guest rooms. Guests at the Aman Spa can enjoy treatments inspired by Kampo healing and Zen philosophy, along with use of a spectacular pool overlooking the city skyline. Aman Tokyo's multiple dining venues, all with spectacular settings, offer cuisine ranging from Aman's signature Italian-dining concept, Arva, to expertly crafted sushi at Musashi. Between exploring the city or taking a trip out to Mount Fuji, guests can take part in a private swordsmanship class; tour the Tsukiji Fish Market; or sip coffee in the Otemachi Forest, where the Café by Aman sits amid verdant flora.

AMANEMU

Ise-Shima National Park, Japan

In Ise-Shima National Park, on the pearl-rich shores of Ago Bay, Amanemu occupies a corner of Japan swathed with protected forests, the Shinto shrine of Ise Jingu, the unique shellfish-diving culture of the Pacific coastline, and mineral-rich hot springs. Embracing the centuries-old ritual of onsen bathing, Amanemu's ryokan-influenced suites and villas each feature a basalt onsen bath, positioned to enjoy unimpeded views. The countryside is equally renowned for its abundant produce — and the restaurant celebrates this with a locally focused menu that includes Wagyu beef; Matsusaka shellfish; and an impressive collection of sake, shochu and Japanese whiskeys. Indigenous and seasonal are the watchwords of the Aman Spa, too, which incorporates fresh wasabi and local flowers and herbs in its Japanese-influenced treatments. It features an onsen bathing complex fed by the mineral-rich waters of the property's own hot spring, honoring a 1,300-year-old tradition.

THE PENINSULA BANGKOK

Bangkok, Thailand

The Peninsula Bangkok mixes timeless elegance and sophistication with contemporary comfort and technology. Its distinctive design affords 370 guest rooms and suites with stunning panoramic views of the Chao Phraya River and Bangkok's skyline. AZERAI LA RESIDENCE, HUE

Hue, Vietnam

An Art Deco treasure set on a six-acre site with 656 feet of frontage on the fabled Perfume River, Azerai La Residence, Hue features 122 guest rooms and suites. The colonial mansion at the heart of the hotel was built in 1930 as part of the residence of the French Resident Superieure. The mansion's distinctive façade, its long horizontal lines and nautical flourishes are hallmarks of the Streamline Moderne school of Art Deco architecture. Its two complementary wings, built in 2005, are contemporary in design yet echo elements of Art Deco aesthetics, and embrace a tropical garden and saltwater swimming pool. Immaculately restored to its former glory, this boutique hotel dazzles with Le Parfum Restaurant. Savor a fusion of French-Vietnamese flavors, from aromatic chicken pho to pan-fried French pigeon to delicious pumpkin soup — accompanied by fine wines. During your stay, azure-, tangerine- and cotton candy-pink-colored sunsets paint the sky above the property.

Combining the Sanskrit-derived word for “peace” with bagh, the Hindi word for garden, Amanbagh provides a tranquil refuge from which to access the rich heritage of Rajasthan’s dramatic frontier region. Lying within a walled compound that was once the staging area for the Maharajah of Alwar’s royal hunts, the resort evokes the palatial grandeur of the Mughal era, offering 22 Haveli Suites and 15 Pool Pavilions situated in lush gardens. Amanbagh’s award-winning design features domed and private courtyards, and at the center of the property is a magnificent swimming pool. An Aman Spa is also set within the gardens, where skilled therapists draw on India’s ancient healing philosophy to provide a range of treatments. Dining at the resort takes place in the graceful domed restaurant and focuses on seasonal Indian and Western cuisines, with vegetables and herbs grown in the organic kitchen garden.

AMAN-I-KHÁS

Ranthambore, India

Aman-i-Khás is a wilderness camp set on the edge of Rajasthan’s Ranthambore National Park. Combining the Sanskrit-derived word for “peace” with khás, meaning “special” in Hindi and Urdu, Aman-i-Khás is surrounded by the starkly beautiful Aravalli Hills. The camp provides unrivaled access to the region’s ancient forts, colorful rural villages and the wildlife of Ranthambore, including India’s elusive tigers. Aman-i-Khás offers accommodation in 10 luxurious, air-conditioned guest tents, each with soaring canopies draped in the Mughal style. There are also three separate tents for dining, spa treatments and lounging, as well as a refreshing step-well pool. There are three other tents at Aman-i-Khás — the Dining Tent, the Lounge Tent and the Spa Tent — all spaced around the camp’s focal point, an outdoor fireplace. The camp also offers a traditional step-well swimming pool, surrounded by a terrace and a grove of trees.

The Americas

From a historic palace-turned-luxury-hotel to a stunning beachfront property or mountain-view lodge, your home away from home offers a luxurious launching point for explorations.

LAZY BEAR LODGE

Churchill, Manitoba, Canada

The design and construction of the Lodge came about in the 1980s. Wally Daudrich, owner and founder of Lazy Bear Lodge, was a local polar bear tour guide who saw the potential of turning two tragic forest fires into a positive experience for visitors to this Arctic wonderland. His plan was to create an eco-friendly lodge that would reflect the history and beauty of its surroundings — a warm and cozy haven in the wilderness. Come inside and feel the warmth of the massive stone fireplace. Your stay at Lazy Bear Lodge is as unique an adventure as the expeditions in the Arctic. Comfortable, hand-built log furnishings await you in our dining room at the end of your day's adventures for a culinary journey. Our produce is 100-percent organically grown from local Boreal Gardens Research farm. Due to our uniqueness and eco-friendly nature, National Geographic Traveler magazine chose Lazy Bear Lodge as one of its top hotels.

The restaurant and bar serve up refreshing cocktails and professionally prepared Costa Rican specialties around an open fireplace. Guests can enjoy a solar-heated pool, the main fern and bromeliad garden, the butterfly and hummingbird garden, hiking and birdwatching with a naturalist guide, horseback riding, and ziplining. Other experiences cater to the adventurous spirit, ranging from a cloud forest hike, coffee and chocolate tour, and a walk along a network of bridges strung up in the high treetops.

'ENDEMIC' & 'ELITE' - GALÁPAGOS LUXURY CRUISES

Galápagos

Setting sail in July of 2018, 'Endemic' marks a new generation of luxury catamarans, incorporating the finest sailing characteristics of any luxury yacht in the Galápagos — spacious, comfortable, smooth and eminently seaworthy. The first small vessel to embrace a panoramic suite design concept, it aptly features eight Panoramic Suites with private balconies affording breathtaking views of the surrounding volcanic archipelago. Designed by a team of experienced shipwrights with the input of guides, cruise directors and guests in order to set a new standard for the region's luxury vessels, 'Endemic' offers one of the most spectacular cruise experiences in the Galápagos Islands. Launched in 2019, 'Elite' offers a safe, steady and relaxing cruise, and the perfect escape after a hot day on the islands. Owing to its innovative design, this twin-hulled catamaran allows for more space on board, including integrated social areas that blend indoor and outdoor designs and experiences.

ILLA EXPERIENCE HOTEL

Quito, Ecuador

Illa Experience Hotel is the perfect way to explore Quito and its culture while enjoying the region's highest standard of service. This renovated family house recently opened its doors to the most exclusive guests. The rooms, setting and service weave together tradition and comfort for a visit that's as authentic as it is luxurious. Three floors, three historic concepts, six luxury rooms and four suites, a selection of deluxe facilities, and a series of carefully created experiences bring the culture of Quito and Ecuador to life. Illa Experience Hotel focuses on restoring nearly forgotten traditions by involving the local community in immersion experiences for its guests, revealing the Ecuadorian culture.

'CAMILA'

Galápagos

Haugan Cruises' third vessel is 'Camila.' This brand-new, 125-foot motorized trimaran is elegant, swift and silent at sea. 'Camila' is designed for comfort and stability, outfitted with eight spacious cabins, each with its own en suite bathroom and private balcony. Armed with three hulls, the vessel boasts sustainability and faster navigation, whisking you to and from the islands faster. Haugan Cruises selects guides who are knowledgeable about biology and ecology, and going ashore, you enjoy their exclusive services as you learn more about the dazzling Galápagos. Guests travel in comfort to the different islands, where they encounter blue-footed boobies, iguanas, giant tortoises, whales and more. Boat features include a leisure deck, sun deck, Jacuzzi, library, outdoor dining and air-conditioned saloon. Also enjoy complimentary amenities, from wetsuits to snorkel gear to onboard kayaks — along with a refreshing welcome cocktail, sure to be a pleasant treat.

'OCEAN SPRAY'

Galápagos

Haugan Cruises has explored the magical, wildlife-rich Galápagos Islands for 14 years. Haugan Cruises' fleet of adventure cruisers includes three luxury vessels, the first being 'Ocean Spray.' This 113-foot adventure catamaran reveals the archipelago's wildlife in comfort and style. The catamaran offers nine spacious cabins, each with its own private balcony and en suite bathroom. Led by a Galápagos National Park-certified guide, itineraries include a visit to the Charles Darwin Research Station, trekking Santa Fe Island for up-close encounters with land iguanas, snorkeling with sea lions, and panga rides to penguin-laden rocky shores. Onboard amenities include a Jacuzzi, indoor lounge and dining area, al fresco deck with bar and dining area, and sprawling sun deck with loungers and hot tub. Guests also enjoy a Champagne reception, along with all-inclusive meals, soft drinks and fruit juices.

'PETREL'

Galápagos

Haugan Cruises' second vessel is 'Petrel.' This 118-foot adventure catamaran showcases the majesty of the archipelago's exotic wildlife. The catamaran offers nine ample staterooms and suites, each with an en suite bathroom and private balcony. Onboard amenities include an indoor dining room, al fresco bar, sun deck and Jacuzzi. All cruises are staffed by a crew of 13, including a Cruise Manager and AAA naturalist guide to guarantee personalized service. Superb itineraries explore North Seymour, San Cristobal, Santa Cruz and beyond. Hike the Sierra Negra Volcano for stunning views of the Galápagos, snorkel with spectacular marine life at Isabela Island, or watch playful sea lions and their cubs up close at barren Isla de Lobos. Diners can enjoy Western-style fare, a delicious buffet, vegetarian options and all-day snacks.

AQUA EXPEDITIONS 'ARIA AMAZON'

Peruvian Amazon

'Aria Amazon' is custom-built to explore the Peruvian Amazon and the famed Pacaya Samiria National Reserve in absolute comfort and luxury — with minimal impact to the delicate Amazonian environment. On board, 16 spacious suites with floor-to-ceiling windows give guests a full view of the Amazon's majestic river and rainforests. The top deck features stylishly appointed amenities and extensive social spaces that include a Jacuzzi, lounge and bar. Guests aboard 'Aria Amazon' also savor the best of Peruvian cuisine with a comprehensive dining menu created by Pedro Miguel Schiaffino, one of Peru's most accomplished chefs, known for creating refined cuisine from native Amazonian produce. Excursions are conducted by highly experienced crew and naturalist guides, assuring guests of highly rewarding wildlife encounters in the Amazon rainforest.

AQUA EXPEDITIONS 'AQUA NERA'

Peruvian Amazon
