EUROPEAN CANAL BARGE
CRUISES

This is the ideal time — and the ideal way — to experience the real Europe.

Imagine exploring the authentic heart of Europe at an unhurried pace, savoring fine local cuisine and wines and visiting quaint historic sites and out-of-the-way shops — and all without the inconvenience of having to repack your luggage. Our 2021 portfolio of European Canal Barge Cruises features some of the finest barges and itineraries on the continent, each a veritable floating villa with its own unique flavor and character.

The time to travel by canal barge has never been better. Barge cruising allows you to explore outdoors, in uncrowded village squares and along picturesque towpaths, or simply by watching the passing scenery from a cozy deck chair. Your meals are mostly private, freshly prepared and served al fresco on deck or in your barge's dining room. You may even consider a private charter, in which your party reserves the entire vessel for your exclusive use — a perfect way not only to celebrate a birthday, anniversary or personal milestone, but also to ensure the peace of mind that comes from travelling exclusively among family and friends.

Feel free to embellish your journey with additional activities before, after or during your cruise, tailoring your itinerary around your own interests — anything from walking or biking to wine and golf — with help from the experts at A&K and our more than five decades of luxury travel experience.

Choose the journey that most appeals to you, and then prepare to discover Europe at its most relaxing and revealing.

Canal barge cruising reveals
Europe's hidden charms
in exemplary style.

An Intimate Way to Travel

Cruising the canals and inland waterways of Europe by barge is tranquil, relaxing and always authentic. Every day on board every handpicked barge features fresh gourmet meals (served and enjoyed on deck or in the privacy of your dining room) and a charming new view. Chat with your hosts — who may double as captain, chef and lock tender — and get to know your fellow guests in pleasant, intimate surroundings.

Explore the Europe that Locals Know, at a Casual Pace

Your cruise route takes you to secluded towns and villages, where you can explore freely and in the open, immersing yourself in inspiring architecture and quiet cafés not listed in the guidebooks. Most routes offer the chance to follow along the towpath, either on a bicycle or your own two feet. Venture into a nearby town or village, and then rejoin the vessel at another lock along the cruise route.

Each Barge Handpicked for Comfort and Style

A&K selects a portfolio of the finest canal cruise vessels operating in Europe today. Only the most inviting barges, accomplished chefs and attentive crews are presented here for your consideration. With the more than 20 different journeys included in this brochure, there is a European Canal Barge Cruise to satisfy every traveller and every taste. Sightseeing, transfers, meals and alcoholic beverages are all included, leaving you free to enjoy yourself — you don't even have to pack until you're ready to return home.

A Choice of Ways to Cruise

To allow you to experience Europe as a couple, on your own, or with a circle of friends or family members, many canal barge journeys included in this brochure offer you the choice to travel independently or as a group on a private charter.

Private Charters

Whether celebrating a birthday, getting together over the holidays or just spending quality time together, a private charter provides the perfect solution for travelling exclusively with friends or family. Privately chartered cruises also can be completely customized according to a theme, from walking, biking, wine and more. Enjoy Burgundy, for instance, on a refreshing walk or bike ride, admiring its mustard fields, medieval villages and rolling green hills; or journey to the vineyards for private tastings, learning about their grapes, cultivation methods and wine history from a master sommelier.

Individual Travel

You can secure a cabin the way you would book a room in a country inn, sharing the vessel's amenities, sightseeing excursions and meals with your fellow guests. It is a wonderful way to meet new people with a similar passion for exploration while exploring the best local sights.

Plan Your Next Adventure

2022 cruise dates are available to book. Please contact A&K or your travel professional for details.

Enjoy inspiring fine dining aboard every canal barge.

“Watching the beautiful country of Scotland drift past me was truly magical. The staff treated me like part of their family, sights were simply incredible and every meal was delicious beyond compare. I would go on another barge cruise in a heartbeat.”

— Molly; Bolingbrook, IL

Refined Cuisine in Breathtaking Locales

Look forward to extraordinary dining experiences aboard every vessel, prepared just for you by an expert chef. Some barges are even equipped with a demonstration kitchen, where your chef prepares gourmet meals and shares with you rich culinary traditions unique to each region.

Delectable Meals Are an Everyday Highlight

Wake up each morning to a beautiful arrangement of locally sourced pastries, artisanal cheeses, fresh fruit, yogurt, fruit juice and freshly brewed coffee. Lunch features an impressive spread of rustic salads, homemade soups, quiches, pâtés, and cheese and wine presentations, and is often served al fresco, with countryside views. Later, sit down to a dazzling multicourse dinner, ending your culinary odyssey on another high note. Moor beneath the stars and savor an unforgettable feast prepared with market-fresh, local ingredients, accompanied by a selection of cheeses and dessert. Throughout your meal, specially chosen fine wines are served to complement the evening's cuisine.

Help Your Onboard Chef Gather the Best Local Ingredients

Your onboard chef knows that great meals begin with the freshest ingredients, many of which can only be gathered after your voyage is already underway. For example, Olivia Power, chef aboard 'Shannon Princess,' relies on key suppliers she has cultivated all along her vessel's cruise route. Ask the chef on your cruise how he or she sources ingredients, and if you wish, rise early to help gather them yourself.

A&K takes you on an unforgettable journey, from sunrise to sunset.

Reflections on a Day of Canal Barging

Wake and sip piping hot coffee or tea from the deck of your intimate vessel, as the sun bathes the tranquil waterways in a golden morning glow. Take in the stunning backyards of historic towns, private residences and architecturally significant landmarks, and watch as they come to life.

Explore both iconic and less-frequented sites, outdoors and far from throngs of tourists. It might be a local truffle farm and lavender distillery in the South of France; a winery in Chablis, which you tour with its owner; or the open-air Dijon market in Burgundy, an irresistible icon featuring cheese stalls, artisanal bakers and pie makers, along with rich snails, cured meats and sweet gingerbread. From walled cities and stunning châteaux and cathedrals to busy markets and time spent with local craftspeople, each experience proves more revealing than the last.

As the afternoon lengthens, consider a peaceful cycling excursion through the countryside, a singular adventure offering rare glimpses into local life. Your captain has a selection of bicycles on hand, as well as a local's knowledge of the best places to see on two wheels. Alternately, find a spot on deck and enjoy an afternoon drink as the scenery lazily rolls by.

As the sun begins to set, gather in the dining room for a gourmet meal matched with curated wines. Before turning in, enjoy a nightcap with fellow guests in the comfortable onboard salon. Then, moor overnight for a relaxing sleep in your well-appointed cabin, arising the next morning to begin the adventure anew.

“I really enjoyed the entire itinerary — great sightseeing, great pace — the perfect combination of relaxing and doing things. And the food and wine were out of this world. Never in my life have I eaten so well!”

— Carrie; Melrose, MA

Savor French Gastronomy and Countryside Vistas

Renowned for its fine wines, cheeses, foie gras and piquant Dijon mustard, the Burgundy region is a culinary delight. Dotted with small, historic towns and verdant vineyards, it is a prime example of the quiet, little pleasures that make canal and river cruising so rewarding.

The agriculturally rich region is also awash in history: Here, Julius Caesar fought the Gaulish Chief Vercingetorix, and the courts of the powerful Dukes of Burgundy once rivaled those of France's kings.

As the history and present-day charm of Europe unfold, your onboard chef prepares elegant meals using regional ingredients, pairing them with vintages for which the region is known.

Ashore, you are met with one fascinating encounter after the next, be it a market in Dijon or a pedal along the towpaths that still flank many canals. Châteaux are always nearby, offering a firsthand example of life in days past.

Explorations — planned at a leisurely pace — immerse you in the beauty of exemplary sites, such as the Palais des Ducs and Musée des Beaux-Arts; a market in Beaune; or the 12th-century Château de Rully, where a private wine tasting awaits.

Learn more about the cruise routes we explore in this region, which span the Burgundy Canal, Saône River, Canal du Centre and Canal de Briare.

Burgundy Canal

The Burgundy Canal offers a scenic gateway to Burgundy, one of France’s most popular holiday destinations. From the Yonne River, it meanders past the Château d’Ancy-le-Franc, Châteauneuf-en-Auxois and Dijon before emptying into the Saône River at St-Jean-de-Losne. Your cruise takes you to charming towns and vineyards for a glimpse of Gallic history, gastronomy and art.

Saône River

Situated in eastern France, this commercial river rises in the Vosges Mountains of Lorraine, flowing through the length of Burgundy to Lyon, where it joins the Rhône. The name “Saône” owes its origins to the Gallic river goddess Souconna and a local Celtic tribe, the Sequanes. Among the important ports along the river are Chalon-sur-Saône, with its medieval quarter, and Tournus, with its tree-lined quays and laid-back pace. At Mâcon, with its numerous cafés and restaurants, the Saône is wide and slow moving as it flows south to Lyon — France’s “second city.”

“This is without a doubt the most incredible way to see France and its gorgeous countryside. Lovely barge, amazing food, and friendly and accommodating crew. Easily one of the best experiences of my life.”

— Ashley; Long Beach, CA

Explore the medieval commune of Semur-en-Auxois

Canal du Centre

Completed in 1792, the Canal du Centre was built to link the Saône River to the Loire, providing the shortest navigable route between Lyon and Paris. It winds its way northward from Chalon-sur-Saône to Digoin, and through the Côte Chalonnaise in southern Burgundy. Though primarily a leisure route today, the canal was once a busy commercial waterway for the wine trade, heavy industry and breeders of Charolais cattle. Its four remaining 19th-century hydraulic boat lifts are still in use and listed as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO.

Canal de Briare

The Canal de Briare, completed in 1642, is one of the oldest canals in France and was built to connect the Seine and Loire rivers. As the first canal in Europe to cross a watershed, it rises 279 feet from Buges in the north, then descends 135 feet to Briare, with a total of 36 locks spanning a distance of only 33 miles. In Briare, commercial loads were once transferred from small riverboats onto larger canal barges bound for Paris. Here, the Canal de Briare is linked to the Canal Latéral à la Loire by way of a magnificent bridge. Built by Gustave Eiffel in the 19th century, the 2,100-foot-long channel is one of the longest navigable aqueducts in the world.

The Wines of Burgundy

Burgundy wines owe their fame to a variety of grapes, the most recognized of which is the noble Pinot Noir. Grown in the valleys and slopes west of the Saône River, they produce the dry red wine named for the region. White Chablis, on the other hand, comes from Burgundy's northernmost reaches. The product of Chardonnay grapes, Chablis is largely unoaked, and it produces a dry, acidic wine that's often described as "steely" in taste. Less frequently, Gamay and Aligoté grapes are used in Burgundian wine production, serving as the basis of light-bodied Beaujolais.

France: Provence & the South

The spectacular tiered arches of Pont du Gard

Discover Roman Heritage and Emblematic Wildlife

While exploring the sun-drenched South of France — land of painters and storied artists — see stunning vineyards and Languedoc, with its ties to the Cathars and a reputation for producing nearly half of the wine the country consumes.

As you float at a relaxed pace along the Canal du Midi, stop to visit Molière’s home of Pézenas or the busy indoor market in Narbonne, pausing to savor Côtes du Rhône vintages or marvel at the Roman aqueduct, Pont du Gard.

Historically home to the Greeks, Romans and Moors, “le Midi” claims a unique identity — Provençal, rather than merely French. Savor a wine tasting at Châteauneuf-du-Pape, visit a lavender distillery or experience the magnificent walled city of Carcassonne before returning to your stylish vessel for gourmet meals.

Sleep soundly in comfortable, well-appointed cabins, refueling for the next day’s adventure, perhaps at Arles’ Roman amphitheater or clifftop Les Baux-de-Provence.

Glide through the wildlife-rich Camargue wetlands, where you may sight any of the 400 species of birds living there, such as the greater flamingo. Or stop at a manade (ranch) in the Camargue to watch as local cowboys tend to their horses and bulls, including the iconic gray-white Camargue horse, an ancient symbol of freedom and romance that seems to embody the spirit of the region.

Take a closer look at the cruise routes we explore in this region below, which span the Rhône River and Canal du Midi.

Visit Carcassonne, a formidable fortress from the Middle Ages

Rhône River

First used as a trade route by the ancient Greeks, the mighty Rhône River has always been the favored link between the Mediterranean Sea and northern Europe. The Romans planted the Vallée du Rhône's first vineyards, and Côtes du Rhône vintages are still among the country's best. Influential cities such as Arles, Lyon and Avignon, a 14th-century papal residence, grew up along its banks.

Canal du Midi

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Canal du Midi is the 17th-century masterpiece of Pierre-Paul Riquet, who transformed technical achievement into a work of art. One lock at the town of Béziers, cut from solid rock, was constructed by a largely female workforce and remains a marvel of engineering. The canal is popular with locals and visitors alike; look for canoers and fishermen lazily sharing the waters with you.

Carcassonne

The strategic site of Carcassonne has two entrances — Porte Narbonnaise and Porte d'Aude — and has been fortified for more than 2,000 years. The old town, La Cité, is extraordinarily preserved, appearing much as it did in the Middle Ages. Its inner ramparts were built by the Visigoths in the sixth century; the outer ramparts were begun by Louis IX. The city fell into decline and was all but abandoned by the 19th century prior to its restoration. Stunning Carcassonne has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1997.

Taste award-winning wines at Châteauneuf-du-Pape and explore the historic Palais des Papes in Avignon.

France & Germany: Alsace, Champagne & the Moselle

Charming homes and flower-lined balconies in Strasbourg

Enjoy an authentic Champagne tasting at Moët & Chandon

Unveil a Tapestry of French, Roman and German Flavors

A true crossroads of cultures, Alsace blends the best of France and Germany without losing sight of its own distinct identity. In this vibrant slice of Western Europe, discover centuries-old traditions; trace the winding Route des Vins d'Alsace; and explore delightful locales such as Strasbourg, Saverne and La Petit Pierre. Champagne offers treasures of its own, from stylish cities to Romanesque cathedrals to wine traditions known the world over. It is here you will find the oldest and most prestigious vineyards in France, where viticulturists continue a practice that dates back to the 1700s.

Float along scenic waterways aboard your canal barge, admiring colorful villages and rich greenery. Each day, enjoy delicious meals prepared by a master chef, paired with fine regional wines. Ashore, you savor dinner at a local restaurant and even stop at an authentic French patisserie, flaunting a rainbow of tarts, eclairs and macarons.

One of Germany's most important wine-growing regions, the Moselle River Valley delights travellers with charming avenues and storybook castles. Visit the family cellars of Franz-Josef Weis for a tasting in the intimate wine town of Zell, certain to be a memorable highlight of your cruise experience.

Below, find out more about the cruise routes we explore in this region, which span Alsace-Lorraine, Champagne and the Moselle River.

Alsace-Lorraine

In the borderlands of Alsace-Lorraine, the history, cuisine and character of France mingle with the traditions of neighboring Germany. Here, charming, fairy-tale villages give way to mountaintop castle La Petite Pierre. Witness life along the postcard-worthy Canal de la Marne au Rhin, a 194-mile-long canal linking Paris with eastern France and featuring more than 150 locks as well as several long tunnels through the Vosges Mountains. The Saint-Louis-Arzviller boat lift is an engineering masterpiece, accomplishing its 146-foot vertical drop in a matter of minutes, making for a most intriguing ride.

Champagne

As the birthplace of bubbly, Champagne enjoys a much celebrated legacy, along with the exclusive right to label the sparkling wine produced here as Champagne. Quiet villages and family-run vineyards pepper the picturesque region, and a warm welcome can always be expected. The Marne River winds through this area, retracing a trade route dating back to Julius Caesar's conquest of Gaul in 56 BC. Explore it by canal barge, pausing for tours and tastings at renowned wine and Champagne estates.

“Absolutely delightful, refreshing, relaxing and restful. Everyone was simply spectacular, attentive without intruding, helpful and available. One of the best weeks of our lives. Cannot wait to return.”

— T and L.Y.; Fairhope, AL

Explore Cochem along the tranquil Moselle River

Moselle River

Germany's valley of the Moselle River is a captivating blend of ancient cultures, winemaking traditions and fascinating history. Over the last 800 years, the valley provided an arena for fierce conflicts, brave knights and the construction of mighty castles. Numerous hilltop castles attest to an impressive Roman legacy, while idyllic towns and villages with half-timbered houses are terraced neatly into hillsides. The grapes that thrive on its slate-lined slopes produce some of the best Rieslings in the world, as you will discover at local winery tastings.

Atmospheric Mantua, nestled in the beautiful Lombardy countryside

Glide along the enchanting Grand Canal by gondola

Explore Romantic Cities and Taste Legendary Cuisine

An epicenter of cultural riches, culinary masterpieces and ancient civilizations, Italy casts a powerful spell over locals and visitors alike. Discover its magic across the Venetian Lagoon and Po Valley, exploring fertile landscapes and savoring a private wine tasting at a seventh-century villa.

Learn more about the cruise route we explore in this region, which spans Venice and the Po Valley.

Venice

A large, crescent-shaped inlet of the Adriatic Sea, the ecologically rich Venetian Lagoon is home to sandbars, mud flats and the 118 islands that make up the city of Venice. When you consider the serenity of its canals, the glory of its architecture and the beguiling ambience of its waterfront, Venice may well be the most romantic city on earth. Visitors savor the rich cuisine of northern Italy, sample the local Veneto wines and slip along the beautiful Grand Canal by gondola — just as locals have done for centuries.

Po Valley

The longest valley in Italy, the Po Valley is world renowned for its exquisite wines. It is also a major agricultural area for the country, where much of its grain is grown, most notably the flavorful rice used in classic risotto. A blend of natural landscapes, the region is laced with a myriad of hiking trails. Mantua, capital of the surrounding province, holds a special place in Italian cultural and musical life, while Ferrara, a Renaissance masterpiece, is home to the Dukes of Este, former rivals of Florence's powerful Medici family. On the shores of the Po River, enjoy dinner at a private villa, where Lord Byron courted his beloved Contessa Teresa Gamba.

Ireland, Scotland & England

Enjoy the Charms and Traditions of Three Great Nations

Watch history unfold before your eyes as you cruise Ireland's River Shannon and inner lakes, Scotland's Caledonian Canal and Loch Ness, or England's River Thames. Enjoy a glimpse into the character and customs of a unique people on whichever journey you choose to take through these storied lands.

Get a closer look below at the cruise routes we explore in this region, which include the River Thames, Caledonian Canal and Loch Ness, Lough Ree, Lough Derg, and the River Shannon.

River Thames

The Thames weaves its way through a tapestry of English history — a world of picturesque villages, winding backwaters, tidy locks and paddling ducks. As you travel through the natural beauty of Buckinghamshire and Berkshire, visit historic sites, including Hampton Court, a former palace of Henry VIII, and Windsor Castle, still in use by the royal family. Frequent stops along the way give you the time to wander and explore the tranquil villages that have grown up along this ancient route.

Caledonian Canal & Loch Ness

The awe-inspiring beauty of the Highlands imbues Scotland with a rich natural heritage. The 60-mile-long Caledonian Canal stretches from the Highlands' capital of Inverness to Fort William. Only partly man-made, it actually links several lochs — including the infamous Loch Ness. Search for the mythical monster as you cruise through the Great Glen, anchoring beside ancient castles that dot the heather-clad hills. From Banavie, with its impressive set of eight 19th-century locks called Neptune's Staircase, there are excellent views of Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain.

Lough Ree

The more than fifty islands of Lough Ree were once inhabited by monks, whose ecclesiastical treasures attracted seafaring Viking raiders. In today's more peaceful Ireland, the tranquil lake is a place for pastimes, such as fishing and birdwatching. Picturesque small towns along its shores, with names like Glasson and Athlone, welcome guests with typical Irish hospitality.

Lough Derg

Unspoiled Lough Derg is an often-overlooked Irish treasure cozily positioned on the River Shannon. Its inviting lakeside towns and villages are steeped in history. Killaloe is best known as the birthplace of Brian Boru, Ireland's legendary 11th-century high king. Perched high above the Lough, the charming estate village of Mountshannon was once a planned community and a center of linen manufacturing. The enchanting hamlet of Terryglass, situated along Lough Derg's northeastern shore, has twice won the distinction of being "Ireland's Tidiest Town."

River Shannon

Rising in the misty moors of County Cavan, the 161-mile-long River Shannon nearly divides Ireland in two. Along its banks are dozens of historic towns, castles and monasteries that testify to Ireland's storied and turbulent history. The river's floodplain is dotted with marshy grasslands and bogs. Cruise the Shannon Callows, a remarkable protected wetland, to see its abundance of diverse birdlife and plant species. There is time to listen to a seisún (traditional music session), enjoy the craic (fun) and share a pint on a relaxing journey through the land of céad míle fáilte (a hundred thousand welcomes).

Holland

Experience Famous Dutch Hospitality at Its Best

Tulips. Canals. Bicycles. Art by the Old Masters. These may be the first things that come to mind when thinking of Holland, but there is so much more. Travelling the waterways is one of the best ways to explore this enchanting land of windmills, chocolate and spectacular spring flowers. Although the canals of Holland were built out of necessity — as repositories for seawater pumped from low-lying shores — their presence resulted in reclaimed land and a very popular system of transportation. A cruise affords a scenic look at medieval architecture; reveals traditional crafts; and offers a sampling of delicious cuisine set amid bustling, cosmopolitan cities and charming rural areas.

Reasonable efforts will be made to operate itineraries as planned, but alterations may occur after the final itinerary has been issued, including cruise routes running in reverse.

Quoted journey prices for individual travel are per person, double occupancy except where indicated. Private charter prices apply to use of the entire barge, up to the published maximum capacity. Although not expected, published prices may be modified due to unexpected significant external factors not forecasted at the time of printing. For charters, there is typically no minimum age requirement; however, vessel owners have final approval concerning minimum age on board. All children under age 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Note that some accommodations require that children below a certain age share a room with an adult.

A&K will make reasonable efforts to accommodate a disability-related request for accommodation. However, if A&K, in its sole discretion, is unable to properly accommodate the need of the person(s) concerned or believes that health and safety may be compromised, A&K reserves the right to refuse participation. Guest must maintain adequate physical distancing and frequently wash or sanitize hands during their journey. Masks are required in vehicles, indoor spaces, any outdoor spaces where physical distancing is not possible and in accordance with local regulations. Noncompliance with these measures will result in not being able to continue on the journey. Guest voluntarily assumes all risks and related expenses in the event that they or any member of their travelling party require testing, quarantine or become infected with COVID-19.

FORCE MAJEURE

Force majeure means unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond A&K's control or the control of our suppliers, the consequence of which neither A&K, nor its suppliers, could avoid even with all due care, including, but not limited to, war or threat of war; riot; civil strife; terrorist activity (actual or threatened); industrial dispute; technical problems with transport, machinery or equipment; outages or power failures; natural or nuclear disaster; fire, flood, drought or adverse weather conditions; pandemics, epidemics or outbreaks of illness; and ice conditions in oceans and level of water in rivers. In the event of a cancellation or material alteration to the journey as a result of the circumstances as described in this clause, A&K may in its sole and absolute discretion:

- (i) offer the guest(s) alternative travel arrangements or products of comparable standard as may be appropriate in the circumstances; or
- (ii) if alternative travel arrangements or products are not offered by A&K, A&K will provide a travel credit to the guest equal to the value of the trip less any sums A&K is not able to recover from any supplier.

A&K cannot assume responsibility for any other travel related costs included but not limited to air, insurance, visas and other travel arrangements, etc.

CLAIMS AND REFUNDS

A&K will not accept any liability for any claims and will not provide refunds except as may be specifically allowed herein.

In the event the guest fails to comply with both obligations, the guest shall not be exempt from this section. If such written notice is not timely provided, the guests, individually and on behalf of any minor child travelling with them, have granted unrestricted rights and permission for A&K to use the Images.

LIMITS ON A&K'S RESPONSIBILITY

Neither A&K nor its parent company, affiliates or subsidiaries, nor any of their respective employees, shareholders, officers, directors, successors, representatives, agents and assigns (collectively the "A&K Parties"), owns or operates any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip with the exception of a limited number of vehicles. A&K purchases transportation (by aircraft, coach, train, vessel or otherwise), hotel and other lodging accommodations, restaurant, ground handling and other services from various independent suppliers (including from time to time other affiliated A&K companies). All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, the A&K Parties are not liable for any negligent or willful act of any such person or entity or of any third person.

In addition and without limitation, the A&K Parties are not responsible for any injury, financial or physical loss, death, inconvenience, delay or damage to personal property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from but not limited to acts of God or force majeure, illness, disease, acts of war, civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, animals, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind, overbooking or downgrading of services, food poisoning, mechanical or other failure of aircraft or other means of transportation or for failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart on time.

There are many inherent risks in adventure travel of the type involved here, which can lead to illness, injury, or even death. These risks are increased by the fact that these trips take place in remote locations, far from medical facilities. Guest assumes all such risks associated with participating in these trips.

If you decide to participate in any activities including, but not limited to, any excursions involving animals, riding on animals, scuba diving, snorkeling, boating, hot air ballooning, helicopter flights, ziplining, high altitude treks, climbing, quad biking, parasailing, parachuting, kayaking, whitewater rafting, jet boat rides, snowmobiling, primate tracking and any other activity which A&K considers to carry inherent risk of serious illness, injury or death ("Activities"), then you fully understand and acknowledge that Activities carry with them various inherent risks, including serious illness, injury or death and you take complete responsibility for your own health and safety and agree to assume all risks of injury, illness or death, whether foreseen or unforeseen, that may befall you as a result of participating in any Activities and agree to release the A&K Parties from any liability whatsoever related thereto.

Further, as consideration for being permitted to participate in the Activities; you release the A&K Parties whether known or unknown, from, and agree not to sue or make claim against the A&K Parties for, property damage, cancellation of any Activities for any reason, illness, negligent rescue operations or procedures, personal injury, or death arising out of your participation in the Activities, and any activity related thereto, including transportation to and from the site of the Activities, regardless of whether such property damage, illness, personal injury, or death results from the negligence of the A&K Parties and/or from any defect in equipment. You further agree to indemnify and hold the A&K Parties harmless with respect to any claim made against the A&K Parties by anyone else which (a) related to your participation in any trip or any Activities, or (b) which would be subject to the above release and covenant not to sue if you had made the claim directly yourself. Upon receipt of notice of the assertion of a claim, the A&K Parties reserve the right to approve, or withdraw approval of, counsel, in its sole discretion.

TRAVEL ADVISORIES/WARNINGS

It is the responsibility of the guest to become informed about the most current travel advisories and warnings by referring to the U.S. State Department or their respective government agencies. In the event of an active State Department or government agency Travel Warning against travel to the specific destination location(s) of the trip, should the guest still choose to travel, notwithstanding any travel advisory, the guest assumes all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of the events like those advised or warned against.
