

ROYAL & DUCAL CASTLES

INSPIRING[®]
EXPEDITIONS
by Geoffrey Kent

Experience the life of Britain's great country estates as a privileged guest.

The English nobility inhabit an opulent world open to only a privileged few — and now, that includes you. I created Royal & Ducal Castles to grant our small group of guests a peek into a life of grand country estates, fine motorsports, polo (my own sport of choice) and, of course, five-star hospitality and exquisite dining. Following visits to Windsor Castle and Goodwood Motor Circuit, we spend three nights at Cowdray House, a picturesque Tudor estate where my co-host, His Grace the Duke of Roxburghe, joins us. We finish our journey at Floors Castle in Scotland, the Duke's ancestral seat, as his personal guests, enjoying a special program of country pastimes arranged just for us.

This journey is truly a one-of-a-kind experience. Join me as we immerse ourselves in Britain's most beautiful landscapes and experience some of its most storied private residences in a way you will never forget.

MAY 2: Windsor Castle | A Royal Welcome

After breakfast, head out to world-famous Windsor Castle. This special, behind-the-scenes visit is by kind permission of His Majesty the King and is led by a member of staff who knows all of the castle's ins and outs. Then continue to Cowdray House, your home for the next three nights. The 16,500-acre, family-owned Cowdray Estate is set in the heart of the South Downs National Park, an area of exceptional beauty in West Sussex. The estate offers a complete range of country sports as well as lavishly tended grounds, with meals prepared from the estate's own products. Relaxing on-site spa therapy treatments are also available. Gather this evening for cocktails and dinner with your hosts, Geoffrey Kent and His Grace the Duke of Roxburghe. Cowdray House | Meals: B L D

MAY 3: Goodwood Motor Circuit | Adrenaline on the Circuit

After breakfast this morning, transfer by luxury car to Goodwood Motor Circuit, England's greatest sporting estate, for a full day of track activities. Goodwood hosts the internationally famous Festival of Speed, The Qatar Goodwood Festival and Goodwood Revival, three of the largest events in the British sporting and social calendar. The ninth Duke of Richmond was a famous racing driver and turned the Second World War airfield on the Goodwood Estate into the Goodwood Motor Circuit in 1948, which hosted some of the famous racing drivers and iconic cars in thrilling wheel-to-wheel racing. Today, you try your hand at this thrilling sport. After some instruction from professional race car drivers, get behind the wheel of your classic or performance car and take to the track for a racing experience and some stunt driving. After lunch in the Jackie Stewart Pavilion, take to the track again for a BMW performance experience, and then follow a classic Land Rover route back to Goodwood House for a tour followed by afternoon tea. Tonight, enjoy dinner on HMS ‘Victory,’ Lord Horatio Nelson’s fabled flagship from the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805. This 104-gun Royal Navy ship launched in 1765 and is the world’s oldest naval vessel still in commission, with 243 years of distinguished service to its credit. Enjoy a guided tour of the ship’s interior, including the Upper Gun Deck where Lord Nelson kept elegant quarters, followed by a Champagne reception and three-course dinner, accompanied by a string quartet. Your host for the evening is Dan Snow, creator of History Hit, the most popular history podcast in the UK. Cowdray House | Meals: B L D

MAY 4: Easebourne | A Day of Polo

Cowdray House was home to the estate’s original polo field, commonly referred to as the House Ground. Geoffrey himself played here with His Royal Highness Prince Charles, now King Charles III, leading the Windsor Park Polo Team to victory. This morning, meet with the professionals from the Cowdray Polo Academy and learn about this exciting traditional sport. Those who wish to try their hand at it may take some instruction from on-hand experts. Then, after a gourmet picnic lunch at the fields, enjoy a match put on especially for you. If you prefer, you may play a round of golf at the Cowdray Golf Club. Gather for cocktails and dinner at Cowdray House this evening.

MAY 5: Roxburghshire, Scotland | The Ducal Estate

Transfer by helicopter to Floors Castle in southeastern Scotland, the largest inhabited home in all of Scotland and the seat of the Duke of Roxburghe. Home of the Innes-Ker family since it was built for the first Duke of Roxburghe in 1721, Floors is a constantly evolving estate that bears the mark of each successive generation of inhabitants. To commemorate the castle’s third centennial, view a special exhibition on the estate along with a new portrait of the Duke by Jamie Coreth, found in the main hall of the castle. After lunch, enjoy some time at leisure and explore the castle and grounds. Just a short walk from the castle are the spectacular Victorian Walled Garden and a formal Millennium Garden, and with the woodland and riverside walks and a delightful cycle trail, there is much for you to discover. Dine this evening at the castle.

Your Co-Host

Charles Innes-Ker,
11th Duke of Roxburghe

Geoffrey's co-host during your journey is the hereditary owner of Floors Castle, His Grace the Duke of Roxburghe. Born Charles Innes-Ker, he was educated at Eton College and served in the famed Blues and Royals regiment of the British Army alongside his friend Prince Harry. Chief among his duties today is the overseeing of Floors Castle estate's farm and businesses. Floors is also his private residence, and he is especially pleased to welcome you as the castle has just celebrated its 300th anniversary.

MAY 6: Alnwick Castle | Private Garden Visit

Today, head out in a fleet of chauffeured vehicles for the drive to Alnwick Castle. One of Britain's most iconic castles and the second-largest inhabited castle in the United Kingdom, Alnwick dates back to the Norman period and, since 1309, its story has been intertwined with that of the Percy family, whose history is as illustrious as the castle's own. Alnwick has served as a military outpost, a teaching college, a refuge for evacuees and the filming location for Hogwarts, as well as the Percy family home. Explore the castle and learn about its history from one of the family members. After your private tour, you may opt to have a go at archery and test your abilities with a bow or learn to fly a broomstick in the spot where Harry Potter first took flight. Have lunch in the State Dining Room at the castle, hosted by the family, followed by a private tour of the award-winning Alnwick Garden, a modern delight combining sculpture, water features and beautiful plants. Return to Floors Castle for some time at leisure, followed by a whiskey tasting and dinner. Floors Castle | Meals: B L D

MAY 7: Floors Castle | Design Your Day

The day is yours to choose from a variety of Duke's activities. Take your pick from fly fishing, a simulated game drive with clay pigeon shooting, an eagle and falconry experience, an off-road excursion on the castle grounds or a relaxing 18 holes of golf. Plenty of other options such as tennis, yoga or a pampering massage are also on hand. Enjoy a butler-served lunch at one of the charming private fishing huts on the bank of the River Tweed. For dinner this evening, travel to Abbotsford, the home of Sir Walter Scott. Over drinks and dinner, your host provides a unique insight into the life of the famous novelist, poet and playwright. Floors Castle | Meals: B L D

MAY 8: Galloway | Drumlanrig Castle

Fly by helicopter to visit the Queensberry Estate and Drumlanrig Castle, owned by the Duke of Buccleuch. The castle is the stunning seat of the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch and Queensberry, and its 90,000-acre estate boasts miles of beautiful walks and acres of gardens. Your visit includes a chance to experience the beautiful heather moorland landscape as well as viewing the Duke's art collection, which includes Rembrandt's An Old Woman Reading, family portraits by artists such as Thomas Gainsborough, landscapes by Paul Sandby and the Dutch masters, and cartoons by Georgian-era caricaturist Thomas Rowlandson. If you want to test your aim, the team can stage a simulated game drive, where coveys of clay targets are used to simulate a real country shooting experience. Celebrate your extraordinary royal castles experience tonight at a gala farewell dinner at Floors this evening. Don traditional Highland attire and gather for a Scottish themed dinner, featuring a private mass pipe band. Floors Castle | Meals: B L D

MAY 9: Depart Edinburgh

Transfer by private car to the airport in Edinburgh in time to board your homebound flight. Meals: B
