Safeguarding your health
while travelling is our top priority.
Here's how we're doing it.

Our more than 55 local offices work tirelessly with our partners behind the scenes.

A&K's local staff have longstanding relationships with our suppliers, including restaurants, hotels, boats, transportation providers and venues. These partners know our exacting standards and have been fully vetted by our staff to make sure they comply with all local regulations regarding health and hygiene.

We're adhering to best practices for cleanliness and disinfection.

We follow the guidelines established by leading health experts. We'll have hand sanitizer readily available, ensure enhanced cleaning in hotels and restaurants, sanitize vehicles at every arrival and departure and make sure dining is as safe as possible.

All guides and staff follow rigorous health and safety procedures.

Everyone involved in running your journey — from guides and drivers to baggage handlers and others behind the scenes — observes a strict, round-the-clock health and safety regimen, including regular staff health and temperature monitoring. A&K staff wear masks at all times and additional personal protective equipment as required.

We're committed to facilitating physical distancing.

A&K's small-group journeys are already well-suited to exploring with safe physical distancing in place: Your transfers are private, for example, and vehicles are spacious enough to ensure every guest gets a window seat. You'll experience no-contact check-in/check-out in many hotels and dining arranged to allow for plenty of space from other guests.

Our health and safety protocols evolve to protect you as you travel.

We closely monitor both external guidelines and local conditions to ensure that our health and safety procedures are up to date and effective. Protocols involving vaccinations, testing, masking and other safety practices are responsive to changing conditions and clearly communicated as you travel.

Abercrombie & Kent meets or exceeds the travel industry's latest global health and safety protocols.

TourCare is established by the United States Tour Operators Association (USTOA).

Safe Travels is established by the World Travel & Tourism Council.

We provide 24-hour support, seven days a week.

We're always on hand to answer questions and address any concerns you may have. Our local offices are experienced in handling any situation and have the contacts and knowledge to support guests 24/7 in the event of medical issues.

Our globe-spanning local access takes you places no one else can, with an authenticity and support network no one can match.

“We loved every minute! The itinerary, the hotels, getting met in all of the airports, having our fantastic guides meet us and ride with us to our gorgeous hotel ... it was amazing!”

— Barbara; Potomac, MD; January 2020

The Most Extensive Network of Travel Experts in the World

Underlying each inspiring A&K journey is the most robust tour-operator-support network in the travel industry — over 55 offices in more than 30 countries around the world, all working 24/7 to uphold the same impeccable standards. In today’s travel environment, there is no substitute for a company that trains and manages its own full-time staff, personally orchestrating every aspect of your journey with precision and flexibility down to the last detail.

The Difference Local Access Makes

For A&K, having our own local staff is only the beginning. We forge lasting, one-on-one relationships with the people that know your destination best, from craftspeople and chefs to experts in local art and history. Our itineraries don’t come out of guidebooks — they’re the result of the authentic connections established between our experts and the friendly, hospitable local people who lend your journey a unique and personal touch.

What does this mean for you as an A&K guest? It means you experience each location on your journey from a truly local perspective, all while enjoying a smooth travel experience in which every detail has been anticipated by a dedicated on-site staff.

A Reassuring Local Presence from the Moment You Arrive

The A&K difference becomes clear as soon as you arrive and meet your representative, who assists with your luggage and escorts you privately to your hotel — on an A&K journey, you don’t share a vehicle on arrival transfers, even with other A&K guests.

Resident Tour Directors with Deep Local Ties

Our Resident Tour Directors have lived for decades, sometimes even their entire lives, in the places you visit. Overseeing your entire journey, they accompany you every day, sharing their unique understanding of daily life as well as your destination’s culture, history and wildlife. The result is a journey that reveals the real spirit of a place, connecting you to the people, places and wildlife you encounter in a way you’ll never forget.

If there’s one thing A&K guests consistently value most about their journeys, it is their Resident Tour Director — 95% of our guests rate their Resident Tour Directors as “Excellent.”

When it comes to inspiring travel, a small group makes a big difference.

A World of Small-Group Journeys for Every Kind of Traveller

Our journeys offer inspiring adventure for every type of traveller, and include Luxury Small Group Journeys, the finest small-group travel experience, as well as Wings Over the World journeys, which feature adventure-packed itineraries made possible through private chartered flights. 2022 departures are also available for Luxury Family Journeys, inspiring adventures for all ages, and Marco Polo Journeys, limited-edition itineraries incorporating active adventure, intrepid destinations or exclusive festivals.

Journeys of No More than 18 Guests

Most Small Group Journeys feature a maximum group size of no more than 18 guests, with an average of only 14. The benefits are many, starting with the opportunity to enjoy deeper interactions with your Resident Tour Director and expert local guides, getting to know them for the insightful, dedicated travelling companions they are.

Itineraries Only Possible with a Small Group

A small group size lets us craft journeys that are seamlessly orchestrated and packed with the insider-access opportunities that are A&K's hallmark. Many of your journey's most memorable activities — whether a celebration at a local monastery or a guided tour of a private art gallery — are only possible with a smaller group. Small groups also enable A&K to reserve one-of-a-kind accommodations that can't house the typically larger groups that travel with other companies.

“What made the entire adventure memorable in all respects was our Tour Director. She was knowledgeable, fun, flexible and, most importantly, concerned that each and every guest's experience was exceptional. A&K is lucky to have someone with her professional and personal skills.”

— Barbara; Carefree, AZ; October 2019

Our experts choose the best accommodations to complement your journey.

End Each Day in Luxury

Wherever possible, we arrange for stays in five-star accommodations that combine first-rate comfort with a keen eye toward their locale, furthering your sense of place while offering the hospitality that makes you feel at home after a day of exploring.

Intimate Boutique Camps and Lodges

As a home base for extraordinary wilderness adventures, many of our journeys feature luxurious boutique camps and lodges available only to smaller groups. These handpicked accommodations combine classic local details with modern amenities and cutting-edge eco-friendly practices — not to mention an incredible front seat to wildlife, often just outside your door.

The Luxury of Location

When visiting remote locales on some Marco Polo Journeys, your hotels place you in the heart of your destination, letting you experience the true flavor of local life, sometimes forgoing creature comfort for the reward of a fully authentic experience.

Accommodations for Families

On Luxury Family Journeys, our local experts choose hotels with five-star style, family-friendly amenities and smartly configured accommodations (such as connecting rooms, where possible) that mean inviting comfort for your whole crew.

A&K Philanthropy partners with local communities to empower lasting change.

Building on a Legacy of Partnership

Established in 1982, A&K Philanthropy (AKP) is dedicated to giving back to the vibrant environments and communities we are so privileged to explore. As part of our ongoing mission, AKP partners with local communities to improve education, conservation, health care and enterprise with over 40 projects spanning seven continents — a philanthropic commitment unequalled in the travel industry.

Experience an AKP Project Firsthand

A number of our small-group journeys offer opportunities to visit an AKP partner community, affording a wealth of moving experiences you won't find anywhere else. Whether it's celebrating a newly opened maternity ward or serving lunch to local schoolchildren, many of our guests experience their journeys' most impactful moments during these visits.

Sharing Genuine Perspectives

AKP employs a team of dedicated Philanthropy Coordinators stationed throughout the world, allowing for deeper, more meaningful cultural exchanges. AKP Coordinators facilitate the face-to-face interactions that reveal the true fabric of these communities, from speaking with a local teacher in a Kenyan village to witnessing the impact of clean water wells in rural Cambodia.

“In 2019 alone, travellers introduced to our AKP-supported projects during their journeys helped improve the lives of more than 125,000 men, women and children worldwide through donations to over 40 programs in 24 countries.

That's the impact that travel can make.”

— Geoffrey Kent, Founder and Co-Chairman, Abercrombie & Kent

After lunch, visit Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens alongside a private local guide. Set on the southeastern slopes of Table Mountain, this living repository is the only major botanical garden in the world entirely devoted to the flora of its own country. Kirstenbosch features 4,700 species growing on over 1,200 acres of expertly landscaped gardens. The Maori: Enduring Heart of New Zealand's Culture

Paddling their wakas (dugout canoes) over vast expanses of the South Pacific, navigating by the stars from Samoa, Tahiti and other islands in Eastern Polynesia, the ancestors of the Maori people reached New Zealand sometime between 1200 and 1300, becoming its first known human inhabitants.

The Maori were expert hunters, gatherers and growers who wove fishing nets from harakeke (flax), and carved fishhooks from bone and stone. They hunted native birds, including the now extinct moa, using ingenious traps and snares, and cultivated land, introducing vegetables such as the sweet potato.

Today, Maori culture remains an integral part of life in New Zealand, influencing its cuisine and customs, while their traditional language, te reo Maori, is still spoken by a small but vital part of the population.

Wings Over the World guests encounter examples of Maori culture as they explore spectacular New Zealand, flying in style by private charter between key destinations on its two main islands.

ACTIVE ELEMENTS & CONDUCT

The suppliers of some activities on journeys may require a minimum age or minimum/maximum height or weight to participate. Some active elements have been incorporated into select itineraries. To enjoy the journeys as intended, a minimum level of fitness is required. A&K will require prior notice if any participant has any physical or other condition or disability that would prevent them from participating in active elements of any journey and/or could create a hazard to himself or herself or to other members of the group. Specific journeys have conditions that may require a guest produce a doctor's certificate to A&K prior to travel. A&K will make reasonable efforts to accommodate a disability-related request for accommodation. However, if A&K, in its sole discretion, is unable to properly accommodate the need of the person(s) concerned or believes that health and safety may be compromised, A&K reserves the right to refuse participation. The guest represents that neither he nor she nor anyone travelling with him or her has any physical or other condition or disability that could create a hazard to himself or herself or other members of the tour. A&K also reserves the right to remove from the trip, at the guest's own expense, anyone whose physical condition or conduct negatively impacts the enjoyment of the other guests or disrupts the tour. Due to ship restrictions, women who will be six (6) months or more pregnant at any time during the cruise are not permitted to travel on Expedition Cruises.

A&K'S GUEST PROTECTION PROGRAM

Travel insurance is not included in the price of the journey and is recommended. You may purchase A&K's Guest Protection Program administered by AON (which provides cancellation coverage, medical coverage and protection against lost or stolen or damaged luggage) or A&K's Guest Protection Program with Cancel for Any Reason Coverage for an additional fee. Coverage takes effect the day A&K receives payment for the plan. The Guest Protection Program is available up to final payment for your journey; however, the plan must be purchased within 14 days of the date your initial trip deposit is received by A&K in order to waive the pre-existing medical condition exclusion. Additional terms apply. The Cancel for Any Reason Program is only available for purchase within 14 days of the date your initial trip deposit is received by A&K (additional terms apply). CFAR provides reimbursement of up to 75% of non-refundable cancellation charges but is not available on select journeys or to New York residents. The cost of coverage is calculated based on the total cost of your travel arrangements. For more information, visit affinitytravelcert.com/abk. Insurance coverages are subject to the terms, limitations and exclusions in the plan, including an exclusion for pre-existing conditions.

Special Requirement for Select Luxury Expedition Cruises:

Due to the remote locations, A&K requires proof of a minimum of $100,000 per person in emergency evacuation/repatriation insurance for all Antarctica, Arctic and Kimberley and other select Luxury Expedition Cruises as specified at time of booking. This minimum amount is included in A&K's Guest Protection Program; upgrades can be purchased for higher coverage on request. If you do not purchase A&K's Guest Protection Program, we require proof of alternative coverage. Please note emergency evacuation insurance provides for covering the cost associated with emergency evacuation and repatriation up to the limits of the respective policy; however, it does not guarantee the timing, method or mode of such evacuation and repatriation, which is subject to weather, location and other conditions or variables outside of A&K's control.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

It is the guest's sole responsibility to obtain and have available when necessary the appropriate valid travel documents. All guests are advised to check with the appropriate government authority to determine the necessary documents required for their travel. A valid passport is required for U.S. and Canadian citizens travelling to all international destinations. Passports must be valid for six (6) months after completion of your journey and should also have sufficient blank visa pages for entry and exit stamps. Many destinations also require a visa for U.S. and Canadian citizens; this will be indicated in your Pre-Travel Documentation. Citizens of other countries should contact the appropriate consular office for entry requirements pertaining to their journey. You may be refused boarding or disembarked from a plane, vessel or train without liability for refund, payment, compensation, or credit of any kind if you do not have proper documentation, and you will be subject to any fine or other costs incurred by A&K which result from improper documentation or noncompliance with applicable regulations. A&K shall not be responsible should any guest be denied entry to a country due to noncompliance with these requirements.

FORCE MAJEURE

Force majeure means unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond A&K's control or the control of our suppliers, the consequence of which neither A&K, nor its suppliers, could avoid even with all due care, including, but not limited to, war or threat of war; riot; civil strife; terrorist activity (actual or threatened); industrial dispute; technical problems with transport, machinery or equipment; outages or power failures; natural or nuclear disaster; fire, flood, drought or adverse weather conditions; pandemics, epidemics or outbreaks of illness; and ice conditions in oceans and level of water in rivers.

A&K will not accept any liability for any claims and will not provide refunds except as may be specifically allowed herein.

Further, as consideration for being permitted to participate in the Activities; you release the A&K Parties, whether known or unknown, from, and agree not to sue or make claim against the A&K Parties for, property damage, cancellation of any Activities for any reason, illness, negligent rescue operations or procedures, personal injury, or death arising out of your participation in the Activities, and any activity related thereto, including transportation to and from the site of the Activities, regardless of whether such property damage, illness, personal injury, or death results from the negligence of the A&K Parties and/or from any defect in equipment. You further agree to indemnify and hold the A&K Parties harmless with respect to any claim made against the A&K Parties by anyone else which (a) related to your participation in any trip or any Activities, or (b) which would be subject to the above release and covenant not to sue if you had made the claim directly yourself. Upon receipt of notice of the assertion of a claim, the A&K Parties reserve the right to approve, or withdraw approval of, counsel, in its sole discretion.

TRAVEL ADVISORIES/WARNINGS

In the event of an active State Department or government agency Travel Warning against travel to the specific destination location(s) of the trip, should the guest still choose to travel, notwithstanding any travel advisory, the guest assumes all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of the events like those advised or warned against.
