An Inspiring Expedition
by Private Jet

October 1-24, 2017

we experienced places we'd never imagined, with true locals leading the way.

Dear Traveller,

Having spent a lifetime travelling, there is still no greater thrill for me than to visit an exotic destination for the first time, and to see firsthand how it meets — and often surpasses — my expectations. I built Around the World with Geoffrey Kent: An Inspiring Expedition by Private Jet around several such places, and I invite you to join me as we circle the globe, discovering each one alongside the world's finest tour managers and local experts.

In tropical French Polynesia, snorkel the brilliant coral reefs or try your hand at shark feeding. In Tasmania, immerse yourself in Australia's colorful history with an in-depth visit to a former convict site. Malaysia gives us a chance to discover Borneo's famous great ape, the orangutan, while Iceland offers the opportunity to ride a snowmobile across the surface of a glacier.

Join me and my handpicked team on board a chartered Boeing 757 with fully reclining, first-class seats, and discover a world many travellers do not even know exists. I look forward to meeting you on this Inspiring Expedition — a true journey of a lifetime.
