MONGOLIA: NAADAM FESTIVAL & THE KHAN LEGACY

PASSPORT AND VISA INFORMATION

Your passport needs to be valid for at least six (6) months after your journey ends, and should have a minimum of three (3) blank visa pages for entry and exit stamps.

CHINA

A tourist visa is required for U.S. and Canadian passport holders for entry into China and must be obtained prior to departure. A visa stamp in your passport can be obtained either by applying directly to a Chinese consulate or through a visa processing service. While there are additional costs involved in using a visa service, this option is available for guests who prefer additional assistance in the visa process.

U.S. citizens who have a passport with a remaining validity of one year or more will be issued a multi-entry China visa that will be valid for 10 years. Note: If you renew your passport after being issued a 10 year China visa, the visa will still remain valid for the full ten years. If you visit China again during this time, you will need to carry both your current, valid passport and the old passport with the 10 year China visa stamp.

Those with passports that have less than one year remaining validity will be issued a visa that is valid for 6 months.

China consulates are jurisdictional and you must submit your application to the specific consulate that covers the region of your home address. Application specifics and requirements may differ between consulates. You may be required to appear in person to apply for your visa (though this is a rare requirement). When applying for your China visa, you may be asked to provide copies of any or all of the following:

- Your round-trip international air ticket, including any connecting flights within the US to your gateway city, or letter noting you will be driving from your home city to the gateway airport if located in another state.
- Your day-by-day itinerary (including specific details for internal air flights or high-speed train journeys within China). If you are visiting any other country/countries prior to arriving into and/or after leaving China, you may be asked to provide a copy of your day-by-day itinerary for those portions of your overall journey as well. However, do NOT mention travel to Tibet, which may result in your visa application being denied.
- Letter of Invitation: Submitting copies of your day-by-day itinerary and round-trip international air ticket as noted above will fulfill the Letter of Invitation requirement.
- Hotel Confirmations: Submitting a copy of the contact list of accommodations and local A&K offices for your journey will fulfill the Hotel Confirmations requirement.
- Your paid in full invoice.
- Your current employment resume.
- If you are self-employed, you may be asked to include a brief letter containing the company profile and your job description.
- Your current, valid passport as well as your previous, expired/non-valid passport.

- If you have ever travelled to Turkey, you may be asked to provide a personal statement letter that includes specific dates and details about all visits. Your statement letter must include details for every Turkish immigration stamp in your current passport.
- Carefully follow all instructions for photograph submissions. Make certain your photograph matches the size requirements, was taken in front of a solid white background and has no shadows and was taken within the last six months. Also remove eye glasses before taking your photo. Other specifics may also apply and are subject to change without notice.

All of these documents should display your full name on them as it appears on your passport. All of these documents should also be TYPED not hand written.

Of Special Note for Canadian Passport Holders

Effective January 1, 2019, the government of China requires all visa applicants in Canada to submit fingerprints. Applicants may submit fingerprints at Visa Application Centers located in Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Calgary, and Vancouver. These application centers are jurisdictional and you must submit your application to the specific center that covers the region of your home address. For more information, please visit our partner VisaCentral's Canadian offices at visacentral.ca/abercrombiekent or the Government of Canada's Travel Advice and Advisories page at travel.gc.ca/travelling/advisories.

MONGOLIA

Holders of U.S. and Canadian passports are not required to obtain a tourist visa for entry into Mongolia for stays of up to 90 days.

Our partner VisaCentral offers easy, efficient U.S. passport and visa processing. Visit them online at visacentral.com/abercrombiekent or call 844 823 1224 and reference A&K's account number 73001. Service fees apply.

Citizens of other countries should contact the appropriate consular office for entry requirements pertaining to their journey.

VACCINATIONS

A yellow fever vaccination is only required to enter China if you are arriving from, or have transited through, a yellow fever-endemic area in South America or Africa. The CDC and WHO each provide a current list of all affected countries. If vaccination for yellow fever is necessary, you must carry an International Certificate of Vaccination provided by your physician; you may be denied entry without it. If your physician advises against receiving the vaccination because of your personal medical history, he or she can provide you with the necessary documentation for the country/countries you are visiting.

There are no required vaccinations to enter Mongolia.

STAY HEALTHY ON THE ROAD

During your time in Mongolia's mountainous regions, you may experience altitude sickness. Please consult your healthcare provider for suggestions on prevention and treatment.

CASH & CREDIT CARDS

China: Cash transactions should be made in Chinese renminbi. Hong Kong dollars cannot be used in China but are easily converted to renminbi. Major credit cards are widely accepted for goods and services. Access to ATM machines is widespread in cities and towns but may be limited in rural areas.

Mongolia: Cash transactions can generally be made in either U.S. dollars or local currency, though some smaller shops may require payment in Mongolian tugrug. U.S. dollars should be recently issued bills in smaller denominations. Major credit cards are accepted on a very limited basis, mainly only in the largest shops, hotels and restaurants. Access to ATM machines is available in larger cities such as Ulaanbaatar but limited in rural areas.

OF SPECIAL NOTE: INTERNET RESTRICTIONS IN CHINA

Please be aware that, due to government regulations, certain internet websites are not accessible in Mainland China. Currently blocked sites include, but are not limited to, Google, gmail and Facebook.

PACKING LIST & BAGGAGE RESTRICTIONS

BAGGAGE RESTRICTIONS

On the international flights between Beijing and Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia passengers are limited to 1 piece of checked baggage per person, with a maximum weight of approximately 44 pounds (20 kilograms) in Economy Class. In Business Class, passengers are limited to 2 pieces of checked baggage per person, with a maximum weight of approximately 44 pounds (20 kilograms) for each piece. On domestic flights between Ulaanbaatar and the Gobi Desert, passengers are limited to 1 piece of checked baggage per person, with a maximum weight of approximately 22 pounds (10 kilograms). All limits are strictly enforced, and charges for overweight baggage can be substantial. Excess baggage from international flights may be stored in your hotel in Ulaanbaatar during the Mongolia portion of your journey.

Please use the provided A&K luggage tags, even if your bags already have ID tags. This makes it easier for A&K staff to collect and manage your luggage for you.

PACKING LIST

Due to the potentially wide range of temperatures during the day, choose versatile, casual clothing that can be layered if the weather requires. Smart casual attire is appropriate for evenings. Formal clothing is not necessary.
