JUL 17 COPENHAGEN | SCANDI CHIC

Brimming with everything from high-design shops and stylishly dressed locals to royal palaces housing Viking treasures, Copenhagen is at once effortlessly cool, eclectic and richly cultural. Enjoy an early, guided panoramic drive of the city that includes a stop at Christianborg Palace and a walk through Amalienborg Palace Square. At Amalienborg, view its four identical classical façades, octagonal courtyard and equestrian statue of King Frederick V. Originally designed for high-ranking aristocrats, the palace became the residence in 1794 for Denmark's Royal Family — some of whom still reside here today, under the watch of the Royal Guards. Return to your elegant ship and enjoy the afternoon cruising toward Poland.
