DAY 3 SANTA FE | HISTORIC CHURCHES

Today, travel with your guide through the magnificent mountains to Santa Fe. First, just as you leave the Taos area, visit Ranchos de Taos San Francisco de Asis church — a famous subject of both Ansel Adams' photographs and Georgia O'Keeffe's paintings. Then, continue to Santa Fe, visiting meaningful historic sites en route, including stops at several Spanish Colonial villages to browse their shops, galleries and studios. The town of Chimayo, a center for woodcarving and masterful, award-winning weavings, also awaits, as does the 19th-century Santuario de Chimayo, a pilgrimage site, known as the "Lourdes of the Southwest" — that attracts thousands of believers every year. Upon arrival, check in to your luxurious resort getaway.
