A Bird's-Eye View of Wildlife and a Private Air Advantage

The charter flights featured on Wings Over East Africa serve as a distinctive type of safari experience in and of themselves, in particular your flight to the Masai Mara Game Reserve, which affords sights of the region's incredible wildlife and gorgeous landscapes that simply can't be duplicated from ground level.

The Mara is home to one of the world's most impressive concentrations of wildlife, and your pilot-guides, skilled in low-level flying, give you the opportunity for a closer look at it than you've most likely ever experienced by air. You may catch glimpses of a giraffe stretching up to nibble a tree branch, an elephant cooling itself in the shallows of a muddy watering hole or a pink swath of countless flamingo wading at the edge of a sparkling lake.

Private chartered air adds another dimension to your safari experience as well, offering a level of time-saving convenience not possible with scheduled air. You're swept elegantly between far-flung locales, including to the forests of Uganda, where you go gorilla trekking, attended to in style by a dedicated flight crew en route.

The Stark Beauty of Sossusvlei, Namibia

Namibia's Sossusvlei is a salt-and-clay pan (or dried-up lake bed) found among the spectacular red-sand dunes of the Namib Desert, which stretches for 1,200 miles along southern Africa's Atlantic coast. This region's vistas of austere, almost otherworldly beauty are never on more vivid display than during the hot air balloon ride included during your three-night stay here.

The pale color of the pan, punctuated by gnarled black tree trunks, contrasts vividly with the Mars-like red of the dunes surrounding it, prompting the feeling you've been magically transported to another planet. "Fairy circles" — naturally occurring, ring-like depressions in the earth that dot the landscape — only add to Sossusvlei's uncanny sense of place.

Nighttime offers its contrasts as well, with daytime desert temperatures cooling significantly after sunset. And since Sossusvlei is part of a dark-sky reserve, a marvelous display of astronomical wonders awaits anyone willing to brave the chill. Let a resident astronomer guide take you on a tour by telescope of the southern constellations.

Far off the beaten path, Sossusvlei is usually a stand-alone destination, yet A&K is able to include it as part of a broader portrait of Southern Africa, thanks to privately chartered air.

DAY 9: Sossusvlei | Hot Air Balloon Ride

Rise before dawn for a hot air balloon adventure, sailing on the wind over the endlessly fascinating terrain of the world's oldest desert, viewing it from a new perspective. Upon landing, enjoy breakfast in the desert. Three Civilizations, One Timely Journey

Wings Over Israel, Jordan & Egypt affords you the incredible opportunity to visit all three of these classic destinations on one exciting journey, in under two weeks — an elegant timetable made possible by the convenience and flexibility of privately chartered flights and A&K's longstanding presence in the region.

Discover Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Masada, Petra, Luxor, the pyramids at Giza, Cairo and the timeless Nile River — fascinating places with histories so compelling that any one of them might top a traveller's must-see list — accompanied by A&K Resident Tour Directors and the finest local guides.

Four Ultimate Destinations

It's hard to imagine four European capitals that have had a greater impact on world history, culture and cuisine than the glittering quartet featured on this inspiring grand adventure.

From Shakespeare to Sherlock Holmes, Buckingham Palace to the Battle of Britain, London occupies a sizable niche in the western psyche. It has served as the seat of a global empire and an unflappable bastion of liberty in the face of the Blitz. Today, London swings on, a lively metropolis with a richly diverse appeal.

No other city in the world has the quite the panache of Paris. The cuisine, haute couture and bon vivant outlook all add luster to the City of Light. Celebrated as a haven for lovers, artists, writers and ex-pats, no traveller who visits Paris leaves unmoved by its magic.

Rome served as the central hub in the wheel of Western history for centuries. The ancient Romans used their military might to conquer and colonize, and when it comes to living life with a passion for good food, fine wine and immortal art, the Eternal City still rules.

As the birthplace of democracy and drama, classical Athens' influences extend unbroken into the present. Its iconic landmarks, like the magnificent Parthenon, bear witness to its past greatness and its idyllic beauty lives on to help inspire your modern-day odyssey, achieved with ease by private air.

Ancient Cultures Linked by the Sea

Few bodies of water on earth have played a more central role in the development of human civilization than the Mediterranean Sea. It was here that the ancient Phoenicians, Greeks and Romans sailed forth to explore new lands, do battle and conduct trade, spreading aspects of their distinctive cultures into Europe, Asia, North Africa and the Middle East as they went.

Time and tide rolled on, and new dynasties arose. The Moors conquered the northern coast of Africa and ruled Iberia for seven centuries until the crusader knights overcame them, leaving their own mark on Mediterranean history. Later still came the Venetians, who used their economic, cultural and naval might to dominate life on and around the sea.

Wings Over the Mediterranean is designed to reveal the common threads these bygone peoples wove throughout the entire region during their travels, and to discern remnants of their faded cultures that still linger today in the destinations you visit.

Only A&K's ability to craft one-of-a-kind itineraries utilizing privately chartered flights offers you this comprehensive perspective in a shorter time than ever before possible, on a single luxurious journey.

Legacy of the Moors

Spain and Morocco are both nations with rich and colorful histories influenced by many cultures down through the centuries — but perhaps by none more so than that of the Moors. The Moorish presence here began when Muslims from eastern North Africa, including Berbers and Arabs, expanded westward and northward across the Mediterranean Sea. In 711, they conquered Visigothic Hispania (the Iberian Peninsula). Later, the Berber Revolt in the Maghreb — a region that includes modern-day Morocco — led to eventual Moorish rule along the southern coast of the Mediterranean.

Over the next 700 years, the Moors developed a culture devoted to Islam while remaining comparatively tolerant of other religions. They built magnificent mosques and impressive seats of learning, including some of the oldest continuously operating universities in the world. Christian Europeans waged a centuries-long war dubbed the Reconquista to reclaim Iberia, which culminated in 1492. Moorish power later faded across Morocco as well.

Today, A&K's superb Resident Tour Directors and local guides excel at providing visitors with an in-depth understanding of the Moors' legacy of lyrical architecture, tantalizing cuisine and commitment to education, which still influences life throughout the region.

DAY 8: Marrakech | Historic Gardens & Design Your Day

At the Crossroads of Empires

The lands of present-day Greece and Turkey have been trod by many peoples of many eras, sometimes linking East with West, and at other times dividing them. The armies of vast empires have swept across these crossroads again and again, driven by the ambitions of legendary leaders and bringing with them immeasurable cultural change.

As the birthplace of democracy and the ancient home of philosophy, mathematics, theater and more, Greek culture was once without peer. Your visit to the ruins of the palace of Knossos reveals the grace of Minoan architecture and art.

The region's signature Malbec grape, which originated in the damp of France, thrives in Mendoza's arid surroundings. Its bold taste and outstanding value have helped make it a worldwide favorite, along with other superb wines produced locally.
